

One Misstatement of Fact Ruins Many a
Good Writing Piece

Many a fine piece of writing is completely ruined for me because the author blindly introduces into his splendid rhetoric an alleged fact which if he had an ounce of common sense he would know to be untrue.

Here I am going along reading an exciting eye-witness story by William Feather about the evening last June when he saw a tornado sweep through the great city of Cleveland, Ohio, with such fury that houses and their occupants were distributed like dust. So far so good. But then Mr. Feather quotes in his Literary Digest Metal magazine something Waldemar Kaempffert wrote in the New York Times.

"On May 27, 1951, the Empire Builder, a train that travels between Seattle and Chicago, was wrecked by a tornado. Five cars, each weighing 64 tons, were wrenched from the locomotive and lifted from the rails. There are accounts of tornadoes that stripped roofs from cars and dogs, tore harness from horses, plucked feathers from chickens, drove straws into boards, carried objects from one state to another."

About tornadoes I believe all that is written above except that they "drive straws into boards," and that I do not believe. It is a fact that when a tornado has gone through the countryside you will find straws sticking out of trees and boards — but on second thought you know the explanation as well as I do.

The tornado did not actually drive a fragile straw into a stout tree or board. That would be impossible, as you really know. What really happened was, the tornado sprung the resilient tree or board, a straw happened to strike a crack, and when the tree or board sprang back straight the straw was pinned where it hit.

Here is an illusion of nature that belies the truth.

But that doesn't excuse a writer or for exercising fine rhetoric without exercising the same due care in handling facts. Even in an august journal like the New York Times silly misstatements sometimes get by the desk.

Poultrymen
to Meet Here
Monday Night

Hope City Hall at 7:30 Monday evening, October 19, is the time and place of one of eight district poultry meetings being held over Arkansas by poultry producers through the Arkansas Poultry Federation District meetings will be held simultaneously Monday evening at Hope, Hot Spring, Little Rock, Batesville, McGee, Berryville, Russellville, and Springfield.

The purpose of the area Arkansas Poultry Federation is to promote the poultry industry in every way possible. Each segment of the poultry industry, from growers through processors, will have a voice in deciding what problems will be given first consideration and what approach will be made in solving these problems.

At the Monday night meetings, all membership possible will be reported and board members to the Arkansas Poultry Federation will be elected. District Six of the organization, District Six is holding two meetings Monday night. If 100 memberships are reported in the district, it will be possible to elect a board meeting at both the Hope and Hot Springs meetings.

Every industrial broiler producer, egg producer, feed man, hatchery man, and others interested in the development of the poultry industry are invited to become members and to attend the Monday night meeting in the Hope City Hall.

Harold Allen of Hempstead County, Wayne Bray of Lafayette County, and Burnell Hill of Sevier County, are the membership chairmen for the Hope meeting.

So that Hempstead County and other counties of this area may have the proper representation on the Arkansas Poultry Federation all broiler producers and others interested in the development of the broiler industry should attend the Monday night meeting as members, states County Agent Oliver L. Adams.

Tarpley Silage to Be Inspected

Elbert Tarpley dairy farm is now feeding silage from a trench silo filled earlier this summer. You are invited to inspect and observe the trench silo, silage, and feeding of the silage Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock by county agent Oliver L. Adams. The Tarpley dairy is located about two miles from Spring Hill on the Battleground road.

Popular Grove Drill
Team Meets Tonight

Captain Charlen Wiggins requests the Popular Grove drill team meet tonight at 7:30 for practice at the hall. A convention will be held at Texarkana Tuesday, October 20, and members of Popular Grove 196 will attend.

Hope Star

55TH YEAR: VOL. 55 — NO. 5

Star of Hope 1899, Press 1927
Consolidated Jan. 18, 1929

HOPE, ARKANSAS, MONDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1953

Members: The Associated Press & Audit Bureau of Circulations
Not Paid Circ. 3 Mo. Ending March 31, 1953 — 3,274

WEATHER FORECAST

Arkansas—Increasing cloudiness this afternoon, tonight, followed by scattered showers in West late Tuesday. Mild temperature.

Experiment Station report for the 24-hour period ending at 8 a. m. Monday: High 92, Low 49.

PRICE 5c COPY

THE PRESIDENT MEETS A QUEEN — Homage to the Queen of the American Royal Livestock Show was graciously paid by President Eisenhower as he was introduced to DeLois Faulkner, 19, of Stillwater, Okla., at the annual show in Kansas City. Harry Darity, chairman of the American Royal Association and former senator from Kansas, stands in background. — NEA Telephoto

LEYTE BLASTS KILL 35 — Seamen of the U. S. S. Leyte carry an injured comrade from the ship after the carrier was wrecked by four explosions as she was being refitted at the South Boston Naval Annex. Eight ship's officers, 23 enlisted men and four civilians died and another 40 men were seriously injured in the explosion and ensuing fire. — NEA Telephoto.

Secret Korean Peace Plan Is Reported; Trieste, Palestine to Get Immediate Attention

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles returned today from the Big Three foreign ministers conference in London, and predicted that results helpful toward world peace and security will flow from the talks there.

"We had a very satisfactory exchange of views which, I think, will produce some results of interest toward peace and security in the future," he told reporters at the airport.

Dulles said he would report "first thing tomorrow morning" to President Eisenhower.

Delayed by head winds, Dulles' special Air Force plane landed an hour and 15 minutes behind schedule.

An immediate task for Dulles is to pass for casing of tensions in

Continued on Page Three

Lebanon Asks Why Meeting Was Called

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Lebanon demanded today that the big three Western powers spell out in precise terms just why they have summoned an urgent security council meeting on Palestine.

Chief Lebanese Delegate Charles Malik told the council he didn't want to agree to a meeting on the "Palestine question" without a specific reason.

Britain, France and the United States asked for the meeting because, they said outside the council.

Continued on Page Two

A Smart Man Today Learns Early That Romance Means More Than Bread to a Wife

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—How should a husband kiss his wife?

A smart man today learns early that romance means more than bread to a sturdy woman, and that if he but learns how to kiss her so as to stir a thrilling echo in her bones she willingly will go out and tote home the bacon herself.

And the nice thing is we live in a world where there's a job waiting for every able-bodied woman as well as every able-bodied man.

The big trouble here is that nine out of 10 husbands are sure they know how to kiss their wives, and nine out of 10 wives think their husbands are wrong.

The truth lies somewhere in between.

A safe rule for husbands to follow is to assume that no wife really knows how she wants to be kissed. She just wants to brag afterward that she was.

Then all he has to do is give her — at least once every five years — each of the following standard kisses:

1. The I-Love-You-Really Family Kiss — Peck her on the cheek and run for the door that leads to your job.

2. The Little Boy Kiss — Spread jam across your mouth after breakfast and then rub your face all over her face tenderly until she cries "uncle."

3. Little Girl Kiss — You come home, pick her up, shake her, shoes off, bend over, press your lips at the point where her hair dye leaks across her sloping forehead. Count five before asking, "What's for dinner?"

4. The Bear Hug Kiss — Do as

Continued on Page Three

Reds Agree to Meet, Plan Peace Talks

TOKYO (AP)—The Communists agreed today to a U. N. proposal for a meeting at Pannumjorn next Monday to make plans for the Korean peace conference but they insisted on the right to decide where the negotiations will take place.

The United States and its allies have insisted just as strongly in earlier notes that the preliminary meeting settle only the time and place of the conference.

A peeping radio broadcast heard here said the red note — signed by the leaders of Communist China and North Korea — was sent to the United States through neutral Sweden.

The red note came as there were reports from London that the Western foreign ministers had agreed secretly on a new and entirely different proposal for the conference — membership — the Big Five and North and South Korea.

Under this plan, Red China rather than Nationalist China would be included among the Big Five. The others are the United States, Britain, France and Russia.

The earlier Allied proposals for the conference called for only the belligerents — with Russia sitting in on the Communist side if invited by the Reds.

By FRANK JORDAN

PANMUNJOM, KOREA (UP)—Polish and Czechoslovak Communist delegates angrily stalked out of a meeting of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission today and a breakdown in the questioning of anti-Red war prisoners was threatened.

The Red delegates staged their Russia-style walkout because the commission turned down Red demand for the immediate interviewing of 1,000 anti-Communist North Koreans who say they prefer to die rather than go home. The North Koreans refuse to face Red questioners.

Faced by a growing crisis, the commission notified the United Nations command that there will be no attempt to question anti-Red prisoners tomorrow.

A Communist correspondent who frequently acts as spokesman for the Communists said that the Reds may refuse to resume the questioning until the commission rules on their demand that they have the right to decide which prisoners — Chinese or North Koreans — are to be heard to the questioning tents each day.

While the situation became more explosive daily, the Peiping Radio broadcast that Communist China accepts the proposal of the U. N. Allies to confer here Oct. 26 to arrange for the Korean political conference to be held under the armistice agreement.

Farm Bureau Plans Series of Meetings

The first of a series of community meetings to be held by the Hempstead County Farm Bureau to discuss Agricultural Policy and to develop county resolutions to be submitted to the Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation will be held Thursday evening, October 22, at 7 o'clock at Hope in the Hempstead County Courtroom.

Meetings will be announced in other communities as satisfactory meeting dates are determined with the community voluntary workers.

Resolutions secured at the community meetings will be grouped together by the County Resolutions Committee for county organization action. The county approved resolutions will then be taken to the State Farm Bureau Convention for consideration by the delegates at the state meeting for that purpose. Ned Purdie, President of the Hempstead County Farm Bureau, is desirous that every Farm Bureau Member take part in the community meetings, as this is the way Farm Bureau Program is formed. All farmers are invited to the meetings.

Revenue Checkup Starts in Hope

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A business-to-business investigation of sales tax collections was begun in Hope today by the Arkansas Revenue Department.

Department auditors have just completed a similar check at Clarksville and Revenue Commissioner Vance Scurluck said the venture was "highly successful" in tightening tax collections.

Scurluck said about 180 retail businesses were checked at Clarksville.

The eyes of about half the children are not yet ready for reading at the age of 4½ says the Better Vision Institute.

BEAMING BONI—Pretty Boni Buchler the plucky aviator hostess who lost her left arm and left leg in a motorboating accident, was all smiles as she was met at the International Airport in Los Angeles, Calif., by actor George Satter. The actor, who was driving the boat at the time of the accident, has been named as a defendant in Miss Buchler's $500,000 suit against the boat's owner, Hotelman Conrad Hilton. — NEA Telephoto.

U. S. Deficit in '54 Indicated in New Budget

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional sources said today another federal deficit next year is indicated in the Eisenhower administration's advance budget prospects.

Final decisions have not been reached, they said, but administration officials wrestling with the problem are talking of the budget to be proposed next January.

1. Despite all efforts to balance the budget, defense spending and scheduled tax reductions probably will add up to a red ink figure of from two to five billion dollars for the year starting next July 1.

2. But the "cash" budget, which includes social security trust fund accounts and other items not counted in the regular administrative budget, probably will show a balance for the first time in several years.

This picture came from congressional sources who are in close touch with administration fiscal planning, but who asked not to be quoted by name.

Revised figures for the current year, ending next June 30, indicate spending of $72,000,000,000 and revenue of $69,000,000,000. This would be an administrative deficit of $3,000,000,000. The "cash" deficit for this year is estimated at a half-billion dollars.

Congressmen said the administration would feel it has made good progress, although not so much as hoped, if it can eliminate the cash deficit next year in the face of scheduled revenue losses. They said administration officials are banking strongly on a balanced administrative budget for the following year.

The cash budget includes income and outgo under the social security program and other special accounts which are kept separate from regular funds. These programs generally are taking in more money than they are paying out. This trend would be accentuated next year under a scheduled increase in social security taxes.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and other officials have said the cash budget, because it measures total government intake and outgo, is the important factor in determining whether government fiscal policies lead to inflation.

It is not the budget meant, however, in popular talk of budget balancing.

As compared with this fiscal year, the administration faces revenue loss next year of $3,600,000,000 from tax cuts set for Jan. 1. These are a 10 per cent reduction in individual income tax rates, and expiration of the excess profits tax on corporations.

In April, still further fiscal year losses of $2,200,000,000 in revenue are scheduled. Those are cutbacks in corporation income tax rates and in some excise tax rates.

All of these losses, adding up to $5,800,000,000 for next fiscal year, would leave a gap of $9,400,000,000 when piled on top of the current year's estimated deficit. That means spending would have to be cut by that amount, or taxes raised or cuts deferred by that amount, to bring next year's administrative budget in balance.

In addition, a "technical" tax revision program promised both by the administration and by Congress.

Continued on Page Three

Three Die in Plane Crash, 22 Escape

NEW YORK (AP)—An airline steward and braved flames to open an emergency door and save a number of lives early today in a plane crash that killed two passengers.

At least 14 of the 27 persons aboard the Eastern Airlines Constellation suffered burns or injuries as it crashed only moments after taking off from Idlewild Airport at 12:56 a. m. (EST) for Puerto Rico.

The dead were identified as George Fisher, a Hartford, Conn., insurance man on a business trip, and Dr. Juan Boyondos, whose address was not immediately available.

Survivors lavished praise on Albert Foley, 20, of Clinton, N. J., the steward, and said his alert action saved their lives.

One said Foley "just leaped through the flames and opened the door" to lead trapped passengers to safety.

Foley was taken to a hospital with burns about the face and hands.

Another flight attendant, Ann Krause, 33, was slightly injured.

The airline said it would issue no statement on the cause of the accident until the Civil Aeronautics Board conducted an inquiry.

The takeoff came after a delay of more than an hour. The plane was only about 20 feet above the runway when it stalled and plunged through a grassy marsh about one-half mile from Jamaica Bay.

"It did not hit the ground very

Continued on Page Three

Mother, Five Children Die in House Fire

AMBLER, Pa. (AP)—A mother and her five children are dead in one of the worst fire tragedies in the history of this suburban Philadelphia community.

The husband and father of the victims and four guests of the family escaped the blaze which swept through their three-story home early yesterday.

An oil stove explosion touched off the blaze, firemen reported, and in seconds flames shot up an open stairway leading to the upper two floors. The victims were all trapped in their floor bedrooms. Two people on the second floor escaped.

The father, John Duckett Sr., 32, was on the first floor with a friend, Stanley Tate, 23, when the explosion occurred. The pair tried in vain to get up the stairway but finally had to flee from the burning home.

Meantime, Eva Dean, 17, Duckett's sister-in-law, and Louella Robinson, 24, climbed from a second floor bedroom to a shed roof and thence through the window of an adjoining residence.

1,825 Acres in Timber Burned

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The State Forestry Department said today that 1,825 acres of Arkansas forest land were destroyed by fires over the weekend.

A total of 113 weekend forest fires, including six which burned over 500 acres near Elson.

Two fires, which the department has been extinguished, broke out again this morning. However, neither of them was believed to be serious.

All Around the Town

By The Star Staff

Henderson practice teachers will teach in Hope schools again this year. . . . Cora Ann Cox of Texarkana and Olivia Jean Smith of Clinton will teach home economics under Mrs. Ruth Henneghan; Carolyn Frazier of Okolona will teach business education under Mrs. Thurman Haddling; Leonard Cling of Arkadelphia, social studies, Mrs. Betty Chapman Hollis; June Unaphers of Hot Springs, English, Mary Roy Moses; Betty George of Waddo, first grade, Mrs. Veina Jones. . . . Mary Sue Halford of Hope will teach second grade in the Arkadelphia schools.

Cpl. Bobby L. Thornton, son of Carl Thornton of Hope Route Three, is now undergoing intensive post-trainee training in Korea. . . . in the army since January 1951 he wears the UN and Korean Service Ribbons. . . . S. E. Bush, USN of Hope, is aboard the attack transport USS Bayfield which is undergoing overhaul at Pearl Harbor, T. H.

Remember if you have social security problems a special representative is at the Employment Office here each Tuesday.

Out of almost 400 Arkansas school children examined in a free clinic by chiropractors throughout the state, postural and spinal defects were found in 82 per cent, according to figures released by the Arkansas Chiropractic Association.

Three Hempstead county farmers, Monroe Samuels of Hope, Guy Green and Shirley Robins of Ozon, were included in a group of 170 who received awards as outstanding conservation farmers at a special program at the Majestic Lodge in Hot Springs last week.

The luncheon and award program climaxed a one-year contest between the Soil Conservation District of Arkansas for achievement in soil stewardship. The grand prize, an all-expense trip to Good Year Tire Company's (Arkansas branch) was won by the Jefferson County Soil Conservation District. Supervisors and their three out-

Mrs. Warren Nesbitt

A dinner in honor of Mrs. Warren Nesbitt, "Miss Irene," retiring first grade teacher in Blevins School, will be given by the faculty and the Blevins School Board of Directors, October 20.

After the dinner, a program will be presented for the public in the Blevins Gymnasium, at which time A. W. Boyd, State Commissioner of Education, will be the principal guest speaker.

Miss Irong retired this year after fifty years in the teaching profession. Many of her friends and former students are expected to attend this program.

Newspaper Says Beria Is in Spain

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UP)—A man whom at least five witnesses have identified as Lavrenti P. Beria, purged head of the Russian secret police, is — or was — in Southern Spain, the San Diego Union said today in a copyrighted story.

Gene Fuson, a reporter for the newspaper, wrote from Madrid that for more than a month he has been working undercover with Spanish secret police and an intermediary for the man who claims to be Beria.

"He said the man's presence in Spain 'has been established beyond a reasonable doubt.'"

"High Spanish police officials, who Fuson said permitted him to disclose the story, are preparing a documented report on the case for Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.), and I have been asked to deliver it to him," the correspondent wrote.

A scheduled meeting with the mystery man was frustrated, according to the story, when Pablo Gallo, the intermediary who was to accompany Fuson to the meeting, was arrested by Spanish police for refusing to give information to a man claiming to be a representative of the United States.

Spare Bird, Save Wire, Telephone Company Pleads

"Spare the bird and save the wire."

That's the gist of a plea to hunters not to shoot at birds on telephone lines issued by P. J. Poe, Manager, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

One stray shot can break one or more telephone wires and cut off important long distance conversations, he pointed out.

"Last year we had 250 wire troubles in Arkansas caused by hunters' shots at a cost of thousands of dollars," he added.

"Those birds sitting on wires are tempting targets, but I'm sure that if sportsmen realize the damage they do by shooting at them, they'll cooperate and spare the bird and save those calls."

Two Accidents Reported by Police

Hope City police reported two accidents over the weekend neither resulting in serious damage.

Saturday night an auto driven by Yednis Roswell ran into the back of a parked truck on Highway 87. The truck was owned by Clem Howard. Both vehicles suffered minor damage.

At Frank Walker's garage, a tractor parked in the back yard started by some unidentified person, the wheel ran upon a man's tractor and the machine overturned.

Court Decision Could Curb State and County Fairs

By LEON HATCH

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court today unanimously rejected an attempt to prevent a public vote on an act reducing the legal markup on wholesale liquor from 13 to 10 per cent.

Since the three per cent difference would be retained on liquor prices as a tax to support state, district and county livestock shows, the Court action could mean a curtailment of fair activities next year. The act can't be enforced until it is approved by the voters.

A spokesman for the fair interests predicted after the decision was announced that half of the county shows would not be held next year.

The Court dismissed a suit brought by Quenchita County Judge M. C. Reynolds and others to prevent Secretary of State C. G. Hall from certifying the question for a vote at the 1954 general election.

The reduction was ordered by Act 285 of the 1953 Legislature, but the law was held in abeyance after petitions to refer it to a popular vote were filed by the liquor dealers.

Reynolds and his associates said that the wholesale liquor dealers misrepresented the facts in posters and other advertising used to induce people to the referendum petitions.

They also contended that the wholesalers conspired with retail liquor dealers to further the alleged misrepresentations.

A third convention was that wording of the petitions to refer the act erroneously said that a new liquor tax was being imposed. The Supreme Court rejected all three assertions.

It said there was no showing that petition signers were misled by the advertising on behalf of the petitions and that there was nothing to indicate an unlawful conspiracy between wholesalers and retailers.

"We do hold that where, as here, the measure 'to be referred' was printed on the petition forms there can be scant excuse for a voter saying he relied upon extraneous representations rather than upon textual matter."

"In the second place no one in this proceeding claims to have been imposed upon. Instead, the

Continued on Page Three

French Close in on 40,000 Communists

By LOUIS GUILBERT
HANOI, Indochnina (UP)—French infantry and armored columns closed in today on 40,000 Communist Viet Nam soldiers moved up the Mandarin highway that in peacetime, linked the Indochnina city of Saigon with the Chinese border.

The troops advanced to within 10 miles of the Communist stronghold of Thanh Hoa while a second column pushed down from the north in a pincer drive to within 25 miles of the surrounded Red bastion.

A third French unit followed provincial route 39, cutting across Tungken-rich hills on the Tongkin-Annam border that protect the Communists in a 65-mile triangle south of Hanoi.

French union officials described the three-pronged drive toward Thanh Hoa as the key maneuver of the entire eight-year war.

The French threw in more than 30,000 French union troops in a daring attempt to strike at the heart of the Red-inspired Viet Minh's power.

French commandos made an amphibious landing in north central Viet Nam last Friday as part of Gen. Henri Navarre's win-the-war offensive.

The American-built aircraft carrier USS Arkansas and other French naval vessels hit the coast before the commandos went ashore.

"Thanh Hoa," the objective, is a Viet Minh food and arms center.

Two Accidents Reported by Police

Hope City police reported two accidents over the weekend neither resulting in serious damage.

Saturday night an auto driven by Yednis Roswell ran into the back of a parked truck on Highway 87. The truck was owned by Clem Howard. Both vehicles suffered minor damage.

At Frank Walker's garage, a tractor parked in the back yard started by some unidentified person, the wheel ran upon a man's tractor and the machine overturned.

When steel is rolled to make it thinner it spreads only in the direction in which it is rolled.

Hardest Working Dollars in Town

... come out of the Hope Federal Savings and Loan Association and if you can use them to buy build or refinancing a home stop in. We'd like to help if we can.

HOPE FEDERAL SAVINGS & LOAN ASSOCIATION

122 East 2nd St.
Telephone 7-4661

See Frank J. Hill or
Fred O. Ellis

Wicks Defends Against Attack by Dewey

By EUGENE LEVIN

NEW YORK (AP) — Acting U. S. Gov. Arthur H. Wicks defends his visit to an imprisoned labor extortionist in a national foreign policy meeting here today.

Wicks, under pressure from Gov. Thomas E. Dewey to resign, made a dramatic radio-television defense yesterday of his visit to John J. Lee, who has become a central figure in a political feud with potential national Republicans.

The acting lieutenant governor was the victim of a "human error" and fight video programming which combined to diminish the effect of his plea.

National Broadcasting Co. personnel for a time could not locate the film of the television show, and viewers were shown a travelogue of Boston. And hour and a half after the scheduled time, NBC put the Wicks broadcast on the air, but it went out on only one of the six New York state stations which had planned to carry it. Radio broadcast was not affected.

Wicks, who has turned down a demand by Dewey that he resign as lieutenant governor, is a Republican majority leader in the State Senate, re-elected on the air that he visited Lee to keep in

MARKETS

ST. LOUIS LIVESTOCK

ST. LOUIS NATIONAL STOCK

YARDS, Ill. (AP) — Live poultry: Hogs 12.00; moderately heavy, 11.50; lighter, 11.00; 25 lbs. and over, 10.50; 20 lbs. and over, 10.00; 15 lbs. and over, 9.50; 10 lbs. and over, 9.00; 5 lbs. and over, 8.50; 2.5 lbs. and over, 8.00; 1.5 lbs. and over, 7.50; 1.0 lb. and over, 7.00; 0.5 lb. and over, 6.50; 0.25 lb. and over, 6.00; 0.125 lb. and over, 5.50; 0.0625 lb. and over, 5.00; 0.03125 lb. and over, 4.50; 0.015625 lb. and over, 4.00; 0.0078125 lb. and over, 3.50; 0.00390625 lb. and over, 3.00; 0.001953125 lb. and over, 2.50; 0.0009765625 lb. and over, 2.00; 0.00048828125 lb. and over, 1.50; 0.000244140625 lb. and over, 1.00; 0.0001220703125 lb. and over, 0.50; 0.00006103515625 lb. and over, 0.25; 0.000030517578125 lb. and over, 0.125; 0.0000152587890625 lb. and over, 0.0625; 0.00000762939453125 lb. and over, 0.03125; 0.000003814697265625 lb. and over, 0.015625; 0.0000019073486328125 lb. and over, 0.0078125; 0.00000095367431640625 lb. and over, 0.00390625; 0.000000476837158203125 lb. and over, 0.001953125; 0.0000002384185791015625 lb. and over, 0.0009765625; 0.00000011920928955078125 lb. and over, 0.00048828125; 0.000000059604644775390625 lb. and over, 0.000244140625; 0.0000000298023223876953125 lb. and over, 0.0001220703125; 0.00000001490116119384765625 lb. and over, 0.00006103515625; 0.000000007450580596923828125 lb. and over, 0.000030517578125; 0.0000000037252902984619140625 lb. and over, 0.0000152587890625; 0.00000000186264514923095703125 lb. and over, 0.00000762939453125; 0.000000000931322574615478515625 lb. and over, 0.000003814697265625; 0.0000000004656612873077392578125 lb. and over, 0.0000019073486328125; 0.00000000023283064365386962890625 lb. and over, 0.00000095367431640625; 0.000000000116415321826934814453125 lb. and over, 0.000000476837158203125; 0.0000000000582076609134674072265625 lb. and over, 0.0000002384185791015625; 0.00000000002910383045673370361328125 lb. and over, 0.00000011920928955078125; 0.000000000014551915228366851806640625 lb. and over, 0.000000059604644775390625; 0.0000000000072759576141834259033203125 lb. and over, 0.0000000298023223876953125; 0.00000000000363797880709171295166015625 lb. and over, 0.00000001490116119384765625; 0.000000000001818989403545856475830078125 lb. and over, 0.000000007450580596923828125; 0.0000000000009094947017729282379150390625 lb. and over, 0.0000000037252902984619140625; 0.00000000000045474735088646411895751953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000186264514923095703125; 0.000000000000227373675443232059478759765625 lb. and over, 0.000000000931322574615478515625; 0.0000000000001136868377216160297393798828125 lb. and over, 0.0000000004656612873077392578125; 0.00000000000005684341886080801486968994140625 lb. and over, 0.00000000023283064365386962890625; 0.000000000000028421709430404007434844970703125 lb. and over, 0.000000000116415321826934814453125; 0.0000000000000142108547152020037174224853515625 lb. and over, 0.0000000000582076609134674072265625; 0.00000000000000710542735760100185871124267578125 lb. and over, 0.00000000002910383045673370361328125; 0.0000000000000035527136788005009293556213390625 lb. and over, 0.000000000014551915228366851806640625; 0.00000000000000177635683940025046467781066953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000072759576141834259033203125; 0.000000000000000888178419700125232338905334765625 lb. and over, 0.00000000000363797880709171295166015625; 0.0000000000000004440892098500626161694526673828125 lb. and over, 0.000000000001818989403545856475830078125; 0.00000000000000022204460492503130808472633369140625 lb. and over, 0.0000000000009094947017729282379150390625; 0.000000000000000111022302462515654042363166845703125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000045474735088646411895751953125; 0.000000000000000055511151231257827021181583333390625 lb. and over, 0.000000000000227373675443232059478759765625; 0.0000000000000000277555756156289135105907916666953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000001136868377216160297393798828125; 0.00000000000000001387778780781445675529539583334765625 lb. and over, 0.00000000000005684341886080801486968994140625; 0.000000000000000006938893903907228377647697916673828125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000028421709430404007434844970703125; 0.000000000000000003469446951953614188823848958339140625 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000142108547152020037174224853515625; 0.000000000000000001734723475976807094411921479166953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000710542735760100185871124267578125; 0.0000000000000000008673617379884035472055960739583390625 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000035527136788005009293556213390625; 0.00000000000000000043368086899420177360279803697916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000177635683940025046467781066953125; 0.000000000000000000216840434497100886801399018489583390625 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000888178419700125232338905334765625; 0.0000000000000000001084202172485504434006995092447916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000004440892098500626161694526673828125; 0.00000000000000000005421010862427522170034975462239583390625 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000022204460492503130808472633369140625; 0.000000000000000000027105054312137610850174877311197916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000111022302462515654042363166845703125; 0.000000000000000000013552527156068805425087438655597916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000005551115123125782702118158333390625; 0.000000000000000000006776263578034402712543719327797916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000277555756156289135105907916666953125; 0.000000000000000000003388131789017201356271859663897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000001387778780781445675529539583334765625; 0.00000000000000000000169406589450860067813592983197916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000006938893903907228377647697916673828125; 0.00000000000000000000084703294725430033906796491597916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000034694469519536141888238489583390625; 0.0000000000000000000004235164736271501695339824597916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000001734723475976807094411921479166953125; 0.0000000000000000000002117582368135750847669912297916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000008673617379884035472055960739583390625; 0.000000000000000000000105879118406787542383495614897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000043368086899420177360279803697916953125; 0.00000000000000000000005293955920339377119172780744897916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000000216840434497100886801399018489583390625; 0.0000000000000000000000264697796016968855958639037244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000001084202172485504434006995092447916953125; 0.000000000000000000000013234889800848442797931951862244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000005421010862427522170034975462239583390625; 0.0000000000000000000000066174449004242213989659759311244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000000027105054312137610850174877311197916953125; 0.000000000000000000000003308722450212110699482987965562244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000000013552527156068805425087438655597916953125; 0.00000000000000000000000165436122510605552474149398277797916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000000006776263578034402712543719327797916953125; 0.00000000000000000000000082718061255302776237074699138897916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000000003388131789017201356271859663897916953125; 0.0000000000000000000000004135903062765138811853734956944897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000169406589450860067813592983197916953125; 0.00000000000000000000000020679515313825694059268774784797916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000084703294725430033906796491597916953125; 0.00000000000000000000000010339757656912847029634387392397916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000000004235164736271501695339824597916953125; 0.00000000000000000000000005169878828456423514817193696197916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000000002117582368135750847669912297916953125; 0.00000000000000000000000002584939414228211757408596848097916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000000000105879118406787542383495614897916953125; 0.00000000000000000000000001292469707114105878704298424097916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000005293955920339377119172780744897916953125; 0.000000000000000000000000006462348535570529393702149212097916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000000000264697796016968855958639037244897916953125; 0.0000000000000000000000000032311742677852646968791960711244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000000000013234889800848442797931951862244897916953125; 0.00000000000000000000000000161558713389263234843959803562244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000000000066174449004242213989659759311244897916953125; 0.0000000000000000000000000008077935669463161742197994017744897916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000000000003308722450212110699482987965562244897916953125; 0.0000000000000000000000000004038967834731578587098997008897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000000165436122510605552474149398277797916953125; 0.000000000000000000000000000201948391736578929354949850444897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000000082718061255302776237074699138897916953125; 0.00000000000000000000000000010097419586828946467747497522244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000000000004135903062765138811853734956944897916953125; 0.0000000000000000000000000000504870979341272323387374977612244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000000020679515313825694059268774784797916953125; 0.000000000000000000000000000025243548967063611617189497880612244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000000010339757656912847029634387392397916953125; 0.000000000000000000000000000012621774483531680848594974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000000005169878828456423514817193696197916953125; 0.0000000000000000000000000000063108872417658404042974974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000000002584939414228211757408596848097916953125; 0.0000000000000000000000000000031554436208823005053744974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000000001292469707114105878704298424097916953125; 0.00000000000000000000000000000157930452544037506316974974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000000000000006462348535570529393702149212097916953125; 0.0000000000000000000000000000007866272627200469077124974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000000000000032311742677852646968791960711244897916953125; 0.0000000000000000000000000000003907840784000586384653124974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000000000161558713389263234843959803562244897916953125; 0.00000000000000000000000000000023297809800007290520819374974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000000000000008077935669463161742197994017744897916953125; 0.0000000000000000000000000000002912226225000911302602421974974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000000000000004038967834731578587098997008897916953125; 0.00000000000000000000000000000036402827812511389153777774974974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000000000020194839173657892935494974940112244897916953125; 0.000000000000000000000000000000455035347656251736469722224974974974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000000000010097419586828946467747497522244897916953125; 0.000000000000000000000000000000568794184593752148337152774974974974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000000000000000504870979341272323387374977612244897916953125; 0.000000000000000000000000000000710992730741715185421441474974974974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000000000000000025243548967063611617189497880612244897916953125; 0.0000000000000000000000000000008887409134271444817768018474974974974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.000000000000000000000000000012621774483531680848594974940112244897916953125; 0.000000000000000000000000000000111092614178418050222100234974974974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000000000000000063108872417658404042974974940112244897916953125; 0.00000000000000000000000000000013886576772252251277762529374974974974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.0000000000000000000000000000031554436208823005053744974974974974940112244897916953125; 0.0000000000000000000000000000001735822096531526503470316174974974974974940112244897916953125 lb. and over, 0.00000000000000000000000000000157930452544037506316974974974974974940112244897916953125;

SOCIETY

Phone 7-3431 Between 8 A. M. and 4 P. M.

Calendar

Tuesday, October 20, 1953
The Girl Scout Troop No. 9 under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Yarbrough will meet at the Little House at Fair Park on Tuesday at 4 p. m.

The Hope Country Club will have its monthly dance Tuesday night, October 20, at 8 p. m. This dance will be a masquerade ball. Hosts and hostesses will be Dr. and Mrs. Emmett Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Burns.

The Garland Brownie Troop No. 3 will meet Tuesday afternoon, October 20, after school at the Little House at Fair Park.

Wednesday, October 21, 1953

The Paisley PTA Study Course will meet Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the home of Mrs. James McGowan, 311 North Washington. Mrs. P. J. Holt will conduct the study. All members are urged to be present.

Thursday, October 22
The Girl Scout Community Committee will hold its regular monthly meeting at the City Hall Thursday at 10 a. m.

The Junior-Senior High School PTA will meet Thursday at 3:30 p. m. in the Junior High Auditorium. And — Mothers don't bring cookies.

The Ladies Day Luncheon will be held at the Hope Country Club Thursday, October 22. Hostesses will be Mrs. Fred Ellis and Mrs. George Robinson. Please call by 6 p. m. Tuesday if you plan to bring a guest.

Saturday, October 24, 1953
The Melody Majors will meet at 10 o'clock Saturday, October 24, in the home of Miss Margaret Ann Archer.

Dahlia Garden Club
Has Regular Meeting
Eighteen members answered roll call with a hint on improving our club when the Dahlia Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. J. O. Luck.

Friday, October 16. Co-hostess was Mrs. Guy Downing.
Mrs. Dewey Baber, vice president, presided over the business session and introduced the new members as follows: Mrs. A. D. Middlebrooks, Mrs. Allen Gee Jr., Mrs. Frank Douglas, Mrs. Wayne Lafferty, Mrs. Guy Downing and Mrs. Guy Linaker. Mrs. Carl Greenlee, membership chairman, presented the names of Mrs. A. C. Ball, Mrs. C. B. Riley and Mrs. Floyd Fuller for membership. They were unanimously elected.

"Beautification" is the Dahlia club theme for the new year, with emphasis on "around the garden." Mrs. J. C. Carlton brought the October program on "Looking to spring with bulbs, corns and tubers," assisted by Mrs. Carl Greenlee, Mrs. Frank Yarbrough, Mrs. Dewey Baber and Mrs. J. O. Luck. Planting information, classifications, color groupings and many hints in the form of a round table discussion were derived from the program.

Mrs. Guy Downing won first place with her crescent arrangement. Dahlia club officers are president, Mrs. Beverly Johnson, vice president, Mrs. Dewey Baber, secretary, Mrs. Martin Green, treasurer, Mrs. Troy Greenlee, historian, Mrs. Carl Greenlee and parliamentarian, Mrs. J. O. Luck.

Mrs. Arch Moore, installing officer, was a guest.

Paisley Wisteria Junior Garden Club Meets

The Wisteria Junior Garden Club of Paisley School met Friday with president Joan Davis presiding.

The meeting was opened with the club pledge, led by Pamela Aslin. Song director Rose Ann Freeman led the group in singing America and Arkansas Traveler. The minutes were read by Betty Beard.

Mrs. J. W. Perkins directed the group in singing and in prayer. Joan Davis and Carolyn Yarbrough showed a collection of pressed leaves.

Mrs. Lahroy Spates demonstrated how to arrange flowers and Mrs. Sam Strong talked on junior clubs and flower shows.

Mrs. Will Ed Waller, president of the Wisteria Senior Garden Club was also present.

Mrs. Luck Hostess to 47 Friendship Club
Mrs. Odell Luck was hostess to the 47 Friendship Club when it met Thursday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Ross Bright presided over the business session in absence of the president. Mrs. Ben Waller was elected as vice-president to fill the unexpired term of the former vice president. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in informal discussion and sewing.

Mrs. Carlton King was presented a gift at this time.
The hostess served a salad plate with feed drink to the eight members and two guests, Mrs. Orville Oglesby and Donald.
The next meeting will be a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Allen Gee, Jr., on October 29.

Poor — Hogue Engagement Announced
Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Poor of Fort Smith, Arkansas, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Rosetta, to Richard P. Hogue, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hogue of Hope.

The wedding ceremony will be performed on November 14.

F. H. A. Has First Meeting of School Year
The Future Homemakers of America held their first meeting of the school year on Tuesday, October 13, at the Home Economics Cottage.

The president, Joyce McBay, opened the meeting with the group singing the F. H. A. Prayer Song. During the business meeting, the additional officers were elected. They are: Jo Ann Rateliff, treasurer, Bobby Tullis, parliamentarian, Jolly McBay, historian, Betty Chamberlain, program chairman and vice president, and Betty Owens, song leader.
The program then was given by Jolly McBay who reported on the F. H. A. organization and explained its purposes. Janette Barr then gave a report of the State Leader.

Boyle

Continued from Page One

above, except you squeeze her until her backbone crackles like popcorn.

5. The Caveman Kiss — as above, except don't shave for two days before, and growl during performance.

6. The Torrid Latin Kiss — Sunburn your lips until they blister, press them feverishly against your wife's, whisper "What is money to me?" The next morning ask her for four bits more for lunch money and you'll know the answer.

7. The Pale Repeach Kiss — You have done something wrong, and your wife knows it, so you must make her feel guilty. Purse your mouth like a guppy, and as she quivers forgivingly toward you circle about her flapping gills, brush against jewels and swim off, whimpering, "Life... Life... life."

8. The Melting Kiss — To be used only by poets. You take a lump of butter in your mouth, grab your wife and bend her over like the glad rag doll she is. Kiss her madly. When the butter has melted, let her drop to the floor. Any wife is sure to fall for a husband like that.

9. The Out-of-Bounds Kiss — This one is for husbands killing another husband's wife in the kitchen during a cocktail party. Open your mouth in surprise and pretend you bumped into her by mistake. Caution is the better part of ardor.

10. The All-Purpose Kiss — Attach your face to the object of your affection and then 10 times softly mumble, "Mississippi... Mississippi... Mississippi." If she shows signs of swooning, quickly go "Putt... putt... putt... like an outboard motor. That'll wake her up."

Whichever way you kiss your wife, be sure to close your eyes, then open them gradually and murmur, "You... you..." — and as you pull back — "You?"

Fellows, it's that question mark that does it!
It leaves her with a great big doubt whether lightning like that will ever strike twice.

Secret Korean

Continued from Page One

two free world trouble spots—Tibet and Palestine.

For the immediate present, they overshadow the greater conflict between the Western Powers and Soviet Russia.

A new Western vote has been sent to Moscow proposing that the Big Four foreign ministers meet to discuss the future of Germany and Austria at Lugana, Switzerland, Nov. 9.

LONDON (AP)—The Big Three foreign ministers have invited Russia to meet with them next month to discuss Germany, Austria and European security. Winding up a three-day conference last night they also took dramatic steps to deal with all other major tensions threatening the world.

The three — U. S. Secretary of State, British Foreign Secretary Eden and French Foreign Minister Bidault—also invited Italy and Yugoslavia to a five-nation meeting on the Balkan powder keg issue of Trieste.

During these intensive meetings the top Western diplomats also discussed Korea, the possibility of a later meeting of the Western chiefs of state with Soviet Premier Malenkov, the turbulent Middle East questions with emphasis on the latest Israeli-Jordan border flare-up and France's seven-year war against the Reds in Indo-China.

The three were reported also to have agreed secretly on a new Korean peace conference plan aimed at ending the present deadlock over its makeup.

There was no official confirmation of this report by a diplomatic informant that the three had agreed on a compromise proposal calling for a seven-nation round-table peace conference including the United States, Britain, the Soviet Union, France, Red China, and North and South Korea. The informant indicated this was aimed at countering Communist demands for the inclusion of a number of neutral nations.

There also was an unconfirmed report that Britain's Prime Minister Churchill had sounded out Dulles and Bidault on how the American and French governments would feel if he should seek a meeting alone with Soviet Premier Malenkov.

Ike Visits Young Polio Victim

MISSION, Tex. (AP)—Fifteen-year-old Tommy Robertson wasn't worried about political party labels when President Eisenhower paid him a visit.

The young polio victim, paralyzed from the neck down, proudly told the President:

"We are Texas Democrats."

President Eisenhower had only ship Conference held at Southern State College during the summer.

Twenty-six new members were added to the roll.

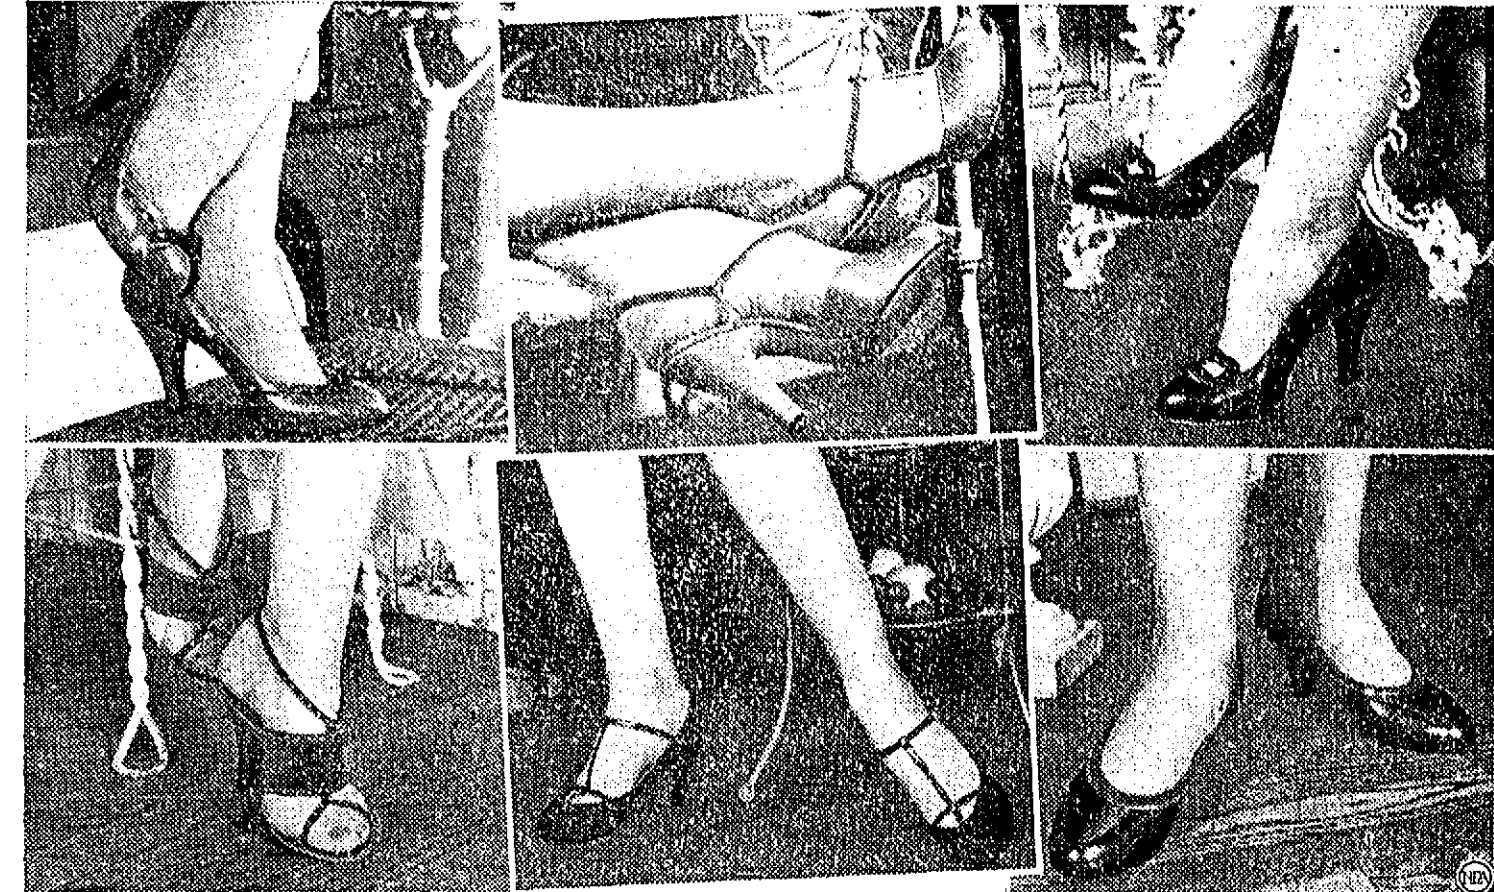

Following the announcement of the Federation meeting to be held in Arkadelphia, November 21, the meeting was adjourned.

Coming and Going

Miss Anna Lou Barnes has returned to the Arkansas Baptist School of Nursing in Little Rock to continue her studies after a week-end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Barnes and family.

This smart young woman realizes that she does not need a completely new wardrobe to be right in step with fall fashions. Instead, she has taken the time to make an inventory of her present fall wardrobe (left), discarding a few items that are no longer serviceable. For the leftovers she selects accessories (center) that give a fresh, new look. To dramatize her basic suit she chooses one of the very new fur helmets, a broad gold bracelet and a pearl choker. For a really high fashion note she chooses a lipstick and nail polish that blend with her costume's color. A final blotting of the lipstick (right) and she is beautifully groomed. And her budget is intact since her expenditures have been limited to make-up and accessories.

The pump is again the number one shoe for fall and winter. With closed toe, slender heel and Spanish last, it's high fashion. We show it (upper left) in glowing russet brown calf, the throat line beaded with jet. Honey-beige calf (upper center) makes T-strap sandal with open back and toe. The Spanish loa appears again (upper right) in black calf pump with cut-out buckle effect edged in black suede. Late day shoe (lower left) is black suede in mule-like design with rhinestone trim on wide band and side straps. Black suede T-strap (lower center) has straps in highly-polished calf. Gleaming gunmetal patent leather is combined (lower right) with elephant gray suede for dress-up pump with sliver heel. Beige and gray are good fall shoe colors.

DOROTHY DIX

Distance Hurts Love

Dear Miss Dix: Several months ago I arrived from a distant city to take on a good position with an excellent future. I am 21. When I left my home town I left a sweetheart whom I had known about three months. We have written each other regularly and are very much in love. When I returned home for a recent visit things were still the same. Her parents liked me and my family approves warmly of Mary. Then, last week, I received a letter that was quite a shock. She asserted definitely that she still loves me, but feels less, and, resents being "tied down." I can't leave my job, but don't want to lose her.

Nothing Unusual
Answer: Mary's position is understandable, since many young girls resent the social inactivity involved in remaining constant to an absent sweetheart. Yet, if she is the sort of girl who expects to become a capable and understanding woman, she should realize the responsibility of your position. Life can't be a bed of roses for anyone. Often the present must be sacrificed for the benefit of a happy, secure future. This position would be understood by Mary if she has any concern for your mutual welfare. If she prefers present pleasures, in making frequent dates, to planning and preparing for her life as your mate, she is obviously more concerned about her welfare than yours. This problem happens frequently since it involves boys in service as well as young men seeking business opportunities.

If Mary refuses to wait for you, your alternative is to try to make dates, meet new friends and engage in local activities. Don't give up your job, and don't consider your case hopeless. After a stray date or two, your girl may realize that your character and dependability are well worth the waiting time.

Dear Miss Dix: I'm a divorced woman with two children. I've been going with a middle-aged man who has been just wonderful to me and my boys. He told me he was divorced from his wife, but I have learned that he was married twice, and left both wives, apparently without the usual reason for separation. Do you think I married him that I'd always be afraid he'd leave me, too?

Answer: It would be a good idea to delve as deeply as possible into laughter as a reply to the lone political note of his surprise visit to the Robertson home immediately after church services yesterday.

He and Tommy chatted about golf and checkers.

U. S. Deficit in

Continued from Page One

sional leaders is expected to reduce tax income by a billion dollars or more annually. These would be in such fields as medical, expenses, dependents, allowances, corporate dividends, depreciation, benefits for working wives, and others. The administration, however, may seek to offset this by closing "loopholes."

Congressional sources expect the administration's overall tax proposals to seek to avert any net loss in revenue from corporate income or excise taxes, and possibly seek a net gain from excises.

But any plausible gain from a revised excise tax system, they say, probably would not be over $2 billion dollars.

So even if Congress goes along with such a tax program, the gap to a balanced budget still would be in the neighborhood of seven billion dollars.

The congressional sources said administration officials still aren't sure how much they can reduce spending, especially for defense. But officials are not optimistic over prospects for a cut as deep as seven billion dollars.

Court Decision

Continued from Page One

plaintiffs merely insist... that others were deceived.

In regard to the question of whether a tax was imposed, the Supreme Court pointed out that although the consumer actually wasn't required to pay more for a bottle of whiskey, one section of Act 285 referred to the 3 per cent difference between the old and new markups on a tax.

The suit which the court dismissed did not allege that any signatures on the petitions were illegal.

Actually 42,255 persons signed the petitions. The total is far more than would have been required to place the matter on the ballot.

If Act 285 is approved at next year's general election, the mark-up will be reduced. If the act is rejected, the mark-up will remain at 13 per cent as it has been in the past.

The Legislature appropriated $700,000 for construction and premiums at the State Livestock Show and District and county shows.

This total was to have come from the difference in the old and new markups which the Legislature allotted to the station.

About 550 kinds of rats are known, three of which have become serious pests for man.

Three Die in

Continued from Page One

hard," said Reinoldo Botancourt, 38, one of the survivors. "But then one of the motors on the right burst into flames."

"Flames were shooting upward and the doorway was just a mass of flames," said Leo Gore, 33, another of the passengers who was trapped inside the fuselage.

"The heat was terrific, but the steward just leaped through the flames and opened the door."

"If it hadn't been for him, nobody would have had the nerve to jump out."

The steward was listed as Al Foley, with no home address given. He was hospitalized with burns of the hands and face.

Twenty-two persons were taken to hospital. One of the dead was identified as Dr. Jan Bajandas. Names of the other victims were not available.

Ticket Agent Admits Holdup a Hoax

EL DORADO (AP)—B. L. Tallent, ticket agent at the Missouri Pacific bus station here, was quoted by police yesterday as admitting that he took more than $800 from the station before he disappeared last Monday.

Police Chief W. E. Hiltman said Tallent made the admission yes-

Dependency Claims to Be Rechecked

WASHINGTON (UP) —

The Army will check more closely on soldiers' claims for dependency allowances as a result of recent disclosures that GIs are defrauding the government of millions of dollars annually.

Where previously the requests for dependency payments were whisked through in order to cut down on the red tape, officials said today the Army now plans to investigate each claim so far as possible to see if the dependent actually relies on the serviceman for support.

The Army hopes the closer check, combined with a legal crackdown on soldiers who have made improper claims in the past, will put an end to the "widespread" practice of GIs receiving money for non-dependents.

The Army reported over the weekend that a six-month investigation has uncovered illegal dependency payments totalling over $1,000,000 annually with the prospect that the total will rise much higher as the investigation continues.

Nation Basks in Balm Weather

By UNITED PRESS

The nation's eastern two thirds basked in balmy autumn weather today, but the bright skies spoiled hardship to many farmers.

The prolonged dry spell caused drought conditions in many mid-west areas and forest rangers were on the alert for brush fires in the dried-up woodlands.

Weather forecasts said a massive high pressure area centered off the New England coast was terday morning after he surrendered to police. Tallent told police that he had gone traveling in Louisiana.

Tallent was being held in Union County jail.

Discrepancies in Kidnap Story Probed

ST. LOUIS, Mo., (UP) — A high level police investigation was begun here today into alleged "discrepancies" in reports of the capture of kidnap-killer Carl Austin Hall.

Police Chief Jeremiah O'Connell said top officers would "start from the beginning" in an attempt to find out what happened to half the $800,000 ransom paid by the wealthy family of Bobby Greenhouse in a futile bid for the Kansas City youngster's safe return.

O'Connell said every officer who had anything to do with the arrest of Hall on Oct. 8 would be summoned to his office and questioned before the inquiry is concluded. However, he said, Lt. Louis Shoulters, key figure in the arrest, probably would not appear today on officer's orders.

The chief said Shoulters, who suffered two "strokes" in recent years, has been "highly nervous." Shoulters was added in arresting Hall by Patrolman Elmer Dolan. When informed of the new investigation, Shoulters snapped he is getting "sick and tired" of rumors about the case.

Unhallowed Hallowe'en

Hallowe'en was not a holiday, that is a holy day, but really an unholy day or night. According to an old belief, on the eve of the Feast of All Saints, or All-Hallows, all the devils, imps, hobgoblins, and other bad spirits were released from their fiery prison for just one night of freedom and mischief making.

It is estimated that about 1.6 billion pounds of detergents are manufactured in the United States in a year.

causing dry southern air to sweep across the nation from the continental divide to the Eastern seaboard.

The warm weather will last until a particularly strong cold front moves in from the West, they said. No such change was in sight today.

Relief You Need for Child's Cough

For coughs and acute bronchitis due to colds you can now get Creomulsion specially prepared for Children in a new pink and blue package and be sure:
(1) Your child will like it.
(2) It contains only safe, proven ingredients.
(3) It contains no narcotics to disturb nature's processes.
(4) It will aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed throat and bronchial membranes, thus relieving the cough and promoting rest and sleep. Ask for Creomulsion for Children in the pink and blue package.

CREOMULSION FOR CHILDREN

relieves Coughs, Chest Colds, Acute Bronchitis

PRESENTED BY THE THIRD DISTRICT LIVESTOCK SHOW

HOPE FAIR GROUND

Performances at 3 & 8 P. M.

FRI. OCT. 23

Clyde BEATTY

IN PERSON

AND HIS Gigantic Railroad CIRCUS

1953 EDITION FEATURING

CLYDE BEATTY, IN PERSON

WILD AND FEROCIOUS MAN-EATING LIONS AND TIGERS IN THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD.

This year presenting the Best Staged Show of Stunt and Feats in All Circus History, including

THE GEORGE HANNEFORD FAMILY BAREBACK RIDING STARS

SCORES OF INCREDIBLE NEW IMPORTATIONS

Gen'l Adm. and Reserved Seat Tickets on Sale Show day only at John P. Cox Drug Store - 2nd & Elm (SAME PRICES AS AT SHOWGROUND)

SAENGER

• LAST TIMES TODAY •

THE STORY BEHIND THE GLORY OF A HEADLINE HERO!

TONY CURTIS

THE ALL AMERICAN

Starring LORI NELSON

TUESDAY

A Solid HIT!

ROMANCE, COMEDY, DRAMA!

Big Leaguer

EDW. G. ROBINSON

VERA-ELLEN

DRIVE-IN THEATRE

MAIN & COUNTRY CLUB ROAD • OPEN 6:30

FINAL NITE

WILL ROGERS, JR. • JANE WYMAN

"THE STORY OF WILL ROGERS"

TUES. & WED • FIRST RUN!

BEHIND CIRCUS MAKEUP BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN!

MAN on a TIGHTROPE

Fredric MARCH • Gloria GRAHAM • Terry MOORE

ARMY SURPLUS SALE

Steel Tool Cabinets and Hand Tool Boxes • Mechanics Hand Tools • New & Used Hydraulic Jacks • Pipe Valves & Fittings • Plumbing Tools & Supplies • Steel Gates, Farm & Ranch • Cattle Guards • Clothes Line Poles • Fence Post Drivers • Fire Extinguishers • Television Aerial Poles • Hundreds of items too numerous to mention! For Sale Cheap.

William M. Duckett

North Main Street

CLASSIFIED

Ads Must Be In Office Day Before Publication

WANT AD RATES

Number of Words	Day Rate	One Week	Two Weeks	One Month
1 to 10	45	1.00	1.50	4.00
11 to 20	75	1.50	2.50	7.50
21 to 30	1.00	2.00	3.50	10.00
31 to 40	1.25	2.50	4.50	12.50
41 to 50	1.50	3.00	5.50	15.00
51 to 60	1.75	3.50	6.50	17.50
61 to 70	2.00	4.00	7.50	20.00
71 to 80	2.25	4.50	8.50	22.50
81 to 90	2.50	5.00	9.50	25.00
91 to 100	2.75	5.50	10.50	27.50

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

One Time 75c per inch
Five Times 3.50c per inch
Ten Times 6.50c per inch
Fifteen Times 9.50c per inch
Twenty Times 12.50c per inch
Thirty Times 17.50c per inch
Forty Times 22.50c per inch
Fifty Times 27.50c per inch
Sixty Times 32.50c per inch
Seventy Times 37.50c per inch
Eighty Times 42.50c per inch
Ninety Times 47.50c per inch
One Hundred Times 52.50c per inch
All rates quoted above are for continuous advertising. Single insert ads will take the one-day rate. All daily classified advertising copy will be accepted until 5 p.m. for publication the following day. The publisher reserves the right to revise or edit all advertisements offering for publication and to reject any objectionable advertising submitted. Initials of one or more letters, groups or figures such as houses or telephone numbers count as one word. The Hope Star will not be responsible for errors in Want Ads unless they are called to our attention before the first insertion. If an ad is not in the paper, call for ONLY the original insertion.

PHONE 7-3431

HOPE STAR

Star of Hope 1899, First 1927
Consolidated January 18, 1929

Published every weekday afternoon by
C. F. Palmer, President
Star of Hope, Inc., 1002 S. Main Street,
Hope, Arkansas

Entered as second class matter at the office of Hope, Arkansas,
at date of March 3, 1927.

Member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations

Subscription Rates (payable in advance)
By carrier in Hope and neighborhood
One Week 25c
Two Weeks 45c
One Month 1.00
Three Months 2.50
Six Months 4.50
One Year 8.00
By mail in other parts of the country
One Week 30c
Two Weeks 55c
One Month 1.10
Three Months 2.75
Six Months 5.00
One Year 9.00
All other mail orders add postage and handling charges.
Not a member of the Associated Press.
The Associated Press is entitled to use the name of the newspaper in its publications.
The newspaper, as well as all AP news dispatches.

Notice

SUBSCRIBE Texarkana Gazette, Daily and Sunday. Complete. Other late news. Daily. 7-4110. 8-25-1M

GUARANTEED house paint only $5.75 per gallon during this sale. Dyer's Swap Shop, 107 South Walnut. 15-01

Services Offered
There are about 697,000 miles of Federal highways in the United States.

For Sale or Trade
BOUTCHER'S Fig. 13 (foot table) steel frame. Complete with Wankash power unit. Good condition. Write or call Split Hickory Co., Inc., P. O. Box 28, Hope, Ark. Phone 7-4023. 19-31

Custom Tailored Clothes
They Fit and Wear Longer
Tom Wardlaw's
Main Street Tailor Shop

FRANK YARBROUGH
BODY & FENDER SHOP
709 Margaret St. Res. Phone 7-3557
Just Off Old Highway 57 West
All types insurance recognized.
All work guaranteed at Reasonable Prices.

CROWN WESTERN SHARES
Prospectus may be obtained from
M. S. BATES
Special Representative
1610 S. Elm. P. O. Box 339
Hope, Ark. Phone 7-4454

E-Z-EYE—SOLE
AUTO GLASS REPLACED
We replace glass with original equipment and recognize all insurance claims.
T. O. PORTER'S
GARAGE & GLASS SHOP
Phone 7-4757

MATTRESSES
Made of new materials
Work Guaranteed
Call Dave
Dave's Mattress Co.
210 S. Elm Street Phone 7-4118

Sees Progress in Baseball Changes

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS (AP) Texas League club owner Dick Burnett said today he thought great progress had been made toward setting changes in the baseball laws that will "give the minor leagues a chance to survive."

Burnett, owner of the Dallas club, called a meeting attended over the weekend by presidents and representatives of 23 minor league and representatives of six major league clubs.

The minor leagues approved legislation that would give them a greater voice in the framing of baseball laws, bring about an unrestricted draft, pay the players part of their purchase or draft price, allow them to waive the draft, raise the price of the draft for the lower minors (class B down to D), return restrictions to radio broadcasts and telecasts of major league games in minor league territory and create a revised minor league agreement.

Upsets Shake Foundations of Grid Giants

By ED CORRIGAN
NEW YORK (AP) — The road to college football's powerhouse is paved with the remains of teams that thought they were brimming over with wealth. Ask UCLA, Duke and Rice.

Here were three of the best teams in the country, all undefeated, before they stumbled with Stanford, Army and Southern Methodist, respectively. Today, their hopes of appearing in post-season bowl games were all but shattered.

Proud UCLA, a defensive Titan that had allowed just seven points in ringing up four victories, was the favorite to win the Pacific Coast Conference title and appear in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day. But Stanford, one of the poor relations of the loop, beat them 21-20.

Now UCLA is faced with the problem of having to whip Southern California when they collide Nov. 21. Chuck Taylor's Indiana did it the hard way too, coming from behind on a 20-7 defeat. Unleashed Bobby Garrett threw for three Stanford touchdowns and converted all three.

"I've never seen a player dominate a game like Garrett did," said UCLA Coach Red Sanders. Garrett completed 17 of 27 passes.

As for Duke, the Blue Devils came a cropper of Army 14-13 and now must hope that Maryland will lose somewhere along the way because the newly formed Atlantic Coast Conference permits only one team to play in a bowl.

The Army victory was its most notable since the crushing scandal ruined its team three years ago. But the Cadets just did nip the Blue Devils, Bob Miskub had to haul down Duke's Red Smith on the 7 after the latter had run 73 yards in the closing minutes.

Rice had high hopes of winning the Southwest Conference championship and playing host in the Cotton Bowl. But Southern Methodist, a better team than many observers thought, had other ideas and won it 12-7. That leaves Baylor still the team to beat in the loop. The latter swamped Vanderbilt 47-6.

Georgia Tech, which has the longest undefeated streak in the land — 31 games with two ties — is in the uncomfortable position of having to face Notre Dame, the top-ranked team in the latest Associated Press weekly poll. The Ramblin' Wreckers wrapped up their mission by clubbing Auburn, 19-0, and defeating Duke, 34-14. This will be the top game of the week.

Maryland shows no signs of cooperating with Duke in the Blue Devils' hopes of getting a post-season bid. The Terps walloped North Carolina 26-0. The still have to face a couple of rough customers, Mississippi and Alabama, in their last two games, but they seem to be getting stronger as the year goes on.

Michigan and Illinois, Michigan State's two big threats to the Big Ten title, both won Saturday as did the Spartans, all three against league opponents.

Michigan turned back Northwestern 20-13; the Illini routed Minnesota 27-7, and State pulverized Indiana 47-18.

Southern California, the new favorite for the Coast title, slaughtered Oregon State 37-0 next faces California.

Only the Sugar Bowl still selects both teams at random. The Cotton Bowl picks one at large to meet the Southwest Conference champion. The Rose Bowl is a closed corporation, matching teams from the Big Ten and Pacific bidding — two in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans and one in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas.

Only the Sugar Bowl still selects both teams at random. The Cotton Bowl picks one at large to meet the Southwest Conference champion. The Rose Bowl is a closed corporation, matching teams from the Big Ten and Pacific

Only the Sugar Bowl still selects both teams at random. The Cotton Bowl picks one at large to meet the Southwest Conference champion. The Rose Bowl is a closed corporation, matching teams from the Big Ten and Pacific

Hazel Walker
A native Arkansan is perhaps the most famous woman basketball player of all time. She is Miss Hazel Walker whose Arkansas Travelers team plays the Hope National Guard crew in the Emmet High School gymnasium Wednesday night, October 21.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By GAYLE TALBOT

GROSSINGER, N. Y. (AP) — There have been some tight training camps that were museum pieces, including one we recall in which Lou Nava delved into the mysteries of yoga and made pals with a live bear, but the one which has been going on here for a number of weeks seems to rank right up with the zaniest of the lot.

Those who have gone through it say they will never forget Randy Turpin as long as they live. The strange character who fights Bobo Olson for the world middleweight title Wednesday night at the Garden has distributed scars which will endure — and none of them on his sparring partners.

By great good luck, it seems, most of our sports writers were busy with such things as the World Series and the opening of the football season, and so were largely spared. The principal sufferers were a group of British experts who were here on orders from their respective papers, and Col. Bob Brumby, a gentleman from Georgia who was being highly paid by the promoting IBC to drum up interest in the impending brawl.

About the first thing Turpin did was let Brumby know that he wanted no part of him. The second was to do everything but sit down on his journalistic countrymen. The moody mauler wanted to be left severely alone. The result has been an unparalleled blasting in the British press and a detectable coldness in Brumby's dispatches.

"The man was rude to me," the distinguished tub-thumper says now, "and I didn't like it. All we've done was just nod up to a few days ago, when he finally had some of us up for tea. I don't know what's wrong with the guy unless his deafness has made him sensitive. It's been a hell of a camp."

Because he wished to talk to nobody and worked out mainly in seclusion at the remote Hungarian gymnasium which is Rocky Marciano's favorite training base, my report on how many rounds Turpin has boxed since arriving here has to be hearsay. Some say the total is surprisingly low considering the hype which is at stake.

Most of our sports writers were busy with such things as the World Series and the opening of the football season, and so were largely spared. The principal sufferers were a group of British experts who were here on orders from their respective papers, and Col. Bob Brumby, a gentleman from Georgia who was being highly paid by the promoting IBC to drum up interest in the impending brawl.

About the first thing Turpin did was let Brumby know that he wanted no part of him. The second was to do everything but sit down on his journalistic countrymen. The moody mauler wanted to be left severely alone. The result has been an unparalleled blasting in the British press and a detectable coldness in Brumby's dispatches.

"The man was rude to me," the distinguished tub-thumper says now, "and I didn't like it. All we've done was just nod up to a few days ago, when he finally had some of us up for tea. I don't know what's wrong with the guy unless his deafness has made him sensitive. It's been a hell of a camp."

Because he wished to talk to nobody and worked out mainly in seclusion at the remote Hungarian gymnasium which is Rocky Marciano's favorite training base, my report on how many rounds Turpin has boxed since arriving here has to be hearsay. Some say the total is surprisingly low considering the hype which is at stake.

Most of our sports writers were busy with such things as the World Series and the opening of the football season, and so were largely spared. The principal sufferers were a group of British experts who were here on orders from their respective papers, and Col. Bob Brumby, a gentleman from Georgia who was being highly paid by the promoting IBC to drum up interest in the impending brawl.

About the first thing Turpin did was let Brumby know that he wanted no part of him. The second was to do everything but sit down on his journalistic countrymen. The moody mauler wanted to be left severely alone. The result has been an unparalleled blasting in the British press and a detectable coldness in Brumby's dispatches.

"The man was rude to me," the distinguished tub-thumper says now, "and I didn't like it. All we've done was just nod up to a few days ago, when he finally had some of us up for tea. I don't know what's wrong with the guy unless his deafness has made him sensitive. It's been a hell of a camp."

Because he wished to talk to nobody and worked out mainly in seclusion at the remote Hungarian gymnasium which is Rocky Marciano's favorite training base, my report on how many rounds Turpin has boxed since arriving here has to be hearsay. Some say the total is surprisingly low considering the hype which is at stake.

Most of our sports writers were busy with such things as the World Series and the opening of the football season, and so were largely spared. The principal sufferers were a group of British experts who were here on orders from their respective papers, and Col. Bob Brumby, a gentleman from Georgia who was being highly paid by the promoting IBC to drum up interest in the impending brawl.

About the first thing Turpin did was let Brumby know that he wanted no part of him. The second was to do everything but sit down on his journalistic countrymen. The moody mauler wanted to be left severely alone. The result has been an unparalleled blasting in the British press and a detectable coldness in Brumby's dispatches.

Yerger Racks Up Another Victory 19-7

Friday night at Hammons Stadium the Yerger Tigers racked up their fourth victory of the year by defeating Dunbar High School of Texarkana, Texas 19-7.

Yerger received the opening kickoff and marched to the Texarkana 20 yard line only to be halted by a fumble. On the next play Dunbar's fumble was recovered by the Tigers. A pass from Moss to Davis covered ten yards and Davis out ran the Dunbar secondary for the first score of the game.

Dunbar was unable to gain ground after the kick-off and was forced to kick on the fourth down. Davis received the kick-off, and brought the ball to the 40 yard line. From there the Tigers started another drive as the first period ended. The beginning of the second period saw Yerger back Davis, Stuart and Wilson carry the ball on a 60 yard drive that netted the Tigers a touchdown when Stuart circled end for pay dirt. At half-time the score was 12-0 in favor of Yerger.

The third period opened with Yerger kicking off to Texarkana. The Tiger line of James Tyus, Roscoe Smith, Orel McFadden, Daniel Martin, Maurice Champion and Vernon Phillips was just too much for the Texas team. The Tiger forward wall has held five opponents to a total of 19 points and has opened up large holes for their fleet running backs.

Most of Yerger's success should be given to these boys up front who have made it possible for the Tigers four victories and a total of 81 points. After the Tigers took over on their own 35 yard line and carried it to the one yard line where he was stopped. On the next play Stuart smashed over for the Tigers' third and last score.

In the fourth period the Tiger reserves took over. A pass from quarterback Tyus intended for Gladney was intercepted by Dunbar and netted them their only score of the game. Final score, Yerger 19, Dunbar 7.

Most outstanding player on the line was Maurice Champion at right tackle. He was the backbone of the line, and his blocking was Jimmy Stuart. These two backs have accounted for 68 of the Tigers' 81 points.

Next week the Tigers journey to Texarkana to play their old rival Washington High School in their second conference game. These two teams always play a hard fought game on the gridiron.

By The Associated Press
Southern's State's Mulderiders, figured to be on the top or close to it when the Arkansas Hypercolleagues Conference play ends this year moved a step closer away the weekend by defeating Henderson, the would-be contender for the crown, 13-7.

Arkansas Tech, picked as an all-time great, even its slate at one victory, and one defeat with a 34-18 pasting of Arkansas State Teachers.

The AIC intersectional average got a boost over the weekend when Arkansas A&M nipped Delta State Teachers of Mississippi 23-20 in a field goal in the final 20 seconds.

Southern's two touchdowns came on an 11-yard spurt by Frank Crabbs and a Travis Farrar plunge from the one. Howard Carver, Southern fullback, carried most of the ground gaining load for the Mulderiders by chalking up 94 of Southern's 197 yards.

Donny Dyer pitched 22-yards to Garry Anderson for the Reddie tally.

A powerful Wonder Boy made

Porks Lose But Draw Praise From Coach

FAYETTEVILLE (AP) — In beating the Arkansas Razorbacks 16-7 Saturday, the Texas Longhorns gave plenty of credence to the thought that the best pass defense is rushing the passer off his feet.

The bigger, stronger and more numerous Longhorns harassed Proker tilters Larma McLean and Ralph Trollett relentlessly, forcing them to throw hurriedly, and at the same time tied up would-be receivers at the line of scrimmage.

As a result, Arkansas found what had been its best offensive weapon worth only 17 yards.

The Razorbacks scored their only touchdown on the ground as McLean pounded the line eight times for all but one of the 33 yards in the fourth quarter drive.

Arkansas muffed its chance for an upset in the fifth 10 and again at the 10 following a fumble recovery and a pass interception.

The Longhorns exploded in the second quarter, scoring one touchdown on a 30-yard pass play, Bunty Andrews to Delano Womack; another on a five-yard run by George Robinson and a safety when Trollett's punt from the Arkansas 10 was blocked out of the end zone.

A record homecoming crowd of 23,000 was disappointed with the outcome, but Coach Bowden Wyatt seemed fairly content with the Razorbacks' continued improvement against progressively stronger opposition.

He said it was simply a case of being "beaten by a team that was physically superior to us."

Wyatt said he was "proud of the chance shredded the Teacher forward wall for four touchdowns in the second period on two sprints by halfback Danny May and two touchdowns aeriels from Bobby Hannon to Don Sevier and Teeter. Travis Hartwick raced 34 yards for Teeter's third period tally.

Teachers whipped up two touchdowns in the second period on a pass from J. E. Lawrence to James Morgan and a five-yard plunge by Jim Hankins. Don Lawrence returned a pass interception 55 yards for the other score in the last frame.

Eastern Loop Title Picture Much Clearer

By ORLO ROBERTSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The title picture in the Eastern Conference of the National Football League was much clearer today with Cleveland the only undefeated team. But not so in the Western Conference, where three teams are deadlocked for the lead, each with three victories and one setback.

Cleveland's Browns took undisputed command of the Eastern 30-14. But the Detroit Lions, 10th champions, were dumped out of the unseaten class by the Los Angeles Rams 31-19. And the San Francisco 49ers outscored the Chicago Bears 35-28. That left the way our boys came back in the second half and held their own. The Packers mentor made no mention of the fact that the absence of three injured backs — Henry Moore, Preston Carpenter and Billy Pickens — weakened his team Saturday, but he'll be happy to welcome them back to the fold this week as he prepares for next Saturday's tilt with Mississippi at Memphis.

So many of his own men played good football that Texas Coach Ed Price devoted most of his post-game comments to McLean.

"McLean has everything, including spirit," he said. "He certainly must be one of the finest backs in the country. He does everything expertly."

McLean threw all five of the passes Arkansas managed to complete. Jarrod the base 22 times — more than half his team's running plays — for 63 yards; consistently punting close to the Texas goal, once sending a 67-yard kick to the three, and was in the thick of defensive play during his more than 50 minutes of action.

Price was guilty of an understatement when he said his star end, Carlton Massey, was outstanding. Massey was the ringleader of the seven and eight-man line arrangements which smothered Arkansas passers and gave the Porker rushing attack a brusing afternoon. Time and again the huge Longhorn wingman was blocked by one or two Razorbacks, and still managed to lunge in to down a ball carrier or throw a passer off balance. On offense, Massey did a superb job of blocking and caught three passes.

Human hearing usually begins to be less acute shortly after the age of 20.

Red Heads Don't Cry

by ROY L. FOLEY

CHAPTER NINETEEN
NANCY felt that Linda was groping, that she didn't know exactly how to begin. Her manner was one of almost friendly gush mixed with hauteur. Nancy had a feeling that the hauteur wasn't innate. Linda was striking in appearance. Except for her very red lips, she was without makeup. Her face was startlingly white in contrast with her lips.

Linda said that she almost didn't know how to start saying what she wanted to say, and in contradiction to her statement, she started immediately.

"It's this, Miss Kelly. I want to save you embarrassment."
"Me? Embarrassment?"
"You will forgive me if I am frank?"

"Oh, do be frank. I like frankness. I'm business girl."
"Yes, you are a working girl."
Nancy hadn't said working girl. She let it pass.

"Have one?"
"Thank you, no."
Nancy wasn't going to take anything from Linda Van Vliet. Not even a cigarette.

"I wonder if you know that you are being talked about?"
"Is that so—by whom?"
"By the girls in my— I was going to say crowd, Miss Kelly, but it's a vulgar expression. I mean at the clubs, at dinners, everywhere I go. There is such gossip about you and Phil Stanley. It hurts me, really it does. It seems to me to be made a fool of by anyone so obviously—shall I say it—so obviously out of your world as Phil Stanley."

"You have said it. Is he out of my world?"
Linda ignored the question. "Phil is a charming fellow and no doubt you've found him so, as have so many other girls—shall I say it—to their regret."

"You have said it. How regret?"
"Really, Miss Kelly, you are making it difficult for me. I wanted to be kind to you."

"Go ahead. Be kind. I need it."
"It all comes right down to this, Miss Kelly. Phil is only playing with you, making a silly little goose out of you. You must know his background. How, possibly, can a girl who has the good sense you have fail to see that Phil Stanley is reckless. He thinks he can buy anything, even girls like you. It would be such a tragedy if something happened—if you were common. It's different with a man. The world hardly lifts an eyebrow at a man, but a girl—"

Under Nancy's steady gaze Linda pretended to fluster, as though she had touched upon an indelicate subject and was embarrassed. As though she had done her best to reach down from the level of Phil Stanley's plane and hers, and that Nancy Kelly of Cass street couldn't, or wouldn't understand her language.

She talked, and though Nancy instinctively hated her, she felt that there might be truth as well as poison in what Linda was saying.

There were her spirits, her pride, that she was always trying to peg so high, and keep high, tottering on the verge of the toboggan again.

She was a Kelly. She did live down on the shabby end of Cass Street. Linda Van Vliet was of Phil Stanley's world, and those of his world were in the habit of looking at a girl like her as though she might be dirt under their feet. In fact, they could look at a Nancy Kelly and give the impression of not seeing her, as though she were transparent, didn't exist.

Nancy gathered up her gloves, her purse. The tips of the fingers of one glove had been mended. Her purse looked cheaper than it actually was beside the elegant, gold-zipper! handbag of Linda Van Vliet.

"Is that all you wanted to say to me, Miss Van Vliet?"
Linda placed her long, crimson nailed hand on Nancy's hand.

"I know you haven't misunderstood me. A person of your intelligence."

Nancy withdrew her hand. She stood up. The word person was expressed so sweetly insidious. It was like the sting of a needle. It was not until Linda had gone that Nancy realized that the poison of Linda's whole conversation seemed to have made her inarticulate.

A torrent of words came flooding to her lips now. Too late.

Nancy, as Linda so fascinated, hypnotized by the play of light in Linda's peculiarly green eyes, that she felt Linda had got the best of her.

Linda had used the word common. Common . . . common . . . common. "I'll show that green-eyed cat. I'll—"

Nancy half ran to the Pfister hotel newsstand. She bought a paper and found a secluded spot in the lobby. She turned to "Help Wanted, Female."

"But why?"
"I've lost my job."
"But why?"
"Because of you."

Phil's smile turned to an expression of concern, and the concern that had been on Nancy's face during perusal of the want ads turned to a smile at the look on his face.

This wasn't she, Nancy Kelly, a girl out of a job. A girl who had just been put in her place by Linda Van Vliet, one of Phil's own crowd. She must be somebody acting in a movie, acting a story with sequences following so fast as to be incredible.

Nancy told Phil the story of her dismissal by Humphrey Charles. Phil listened without interruption.

What an aristocrat he was—at least in looks, Nancy thought. The set of his tie. The very cut of his hair.

She finished her story. Phil's eyes narrowed.

"That old buzzard."
He said that and before he could say more Nancy had an impulse to pour out the story of her meeting with Linda Van Vliet. She checked it. She remembered Linda's words. . . . Phil is only playing with you . . . making a goose out of you . . . You must know his background.

Phil called Humphrey Charles an old buzzard and more. He told Nancy not to worry, he'd get her another job, perhaps in his father's office.

Nancy watched his lips. In the Oconomowoc lake lodge, he had crushed them against his own . . . how possibly can a girl with the good sense you have . . . .

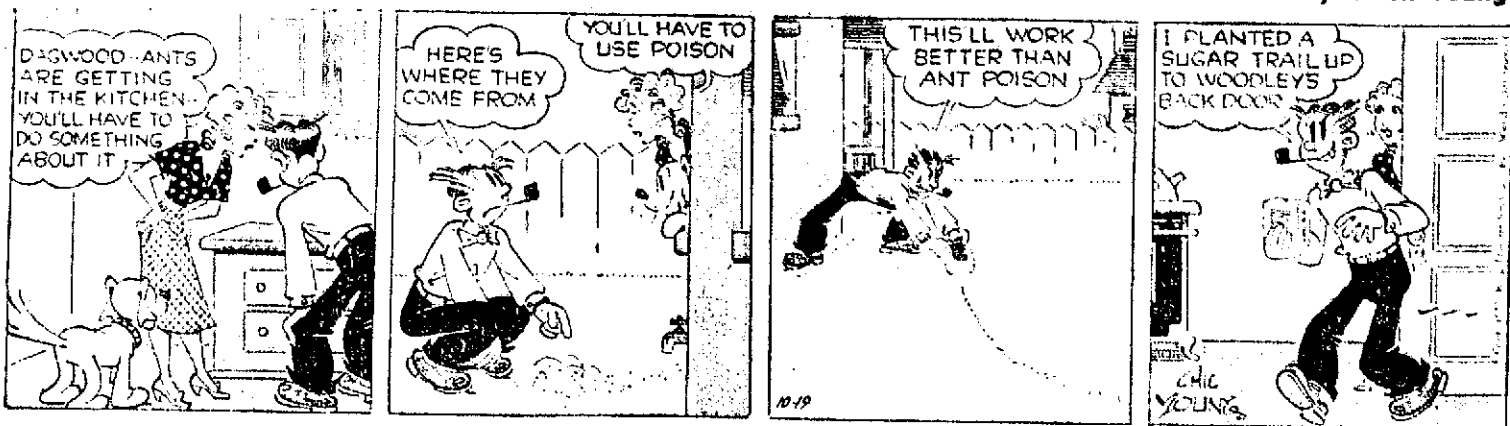

Phil snapped his fingers. "I've got it. You've said half a dozen times that you hated the drudgery of an office. You said you'd like to be on your own, to prove yourself to yourself. You said you'd like to start a shop. I'll give you the opportunity. I'll back it. You run it."

His eyes were fired with that compelling mischief Nancy had seen before.

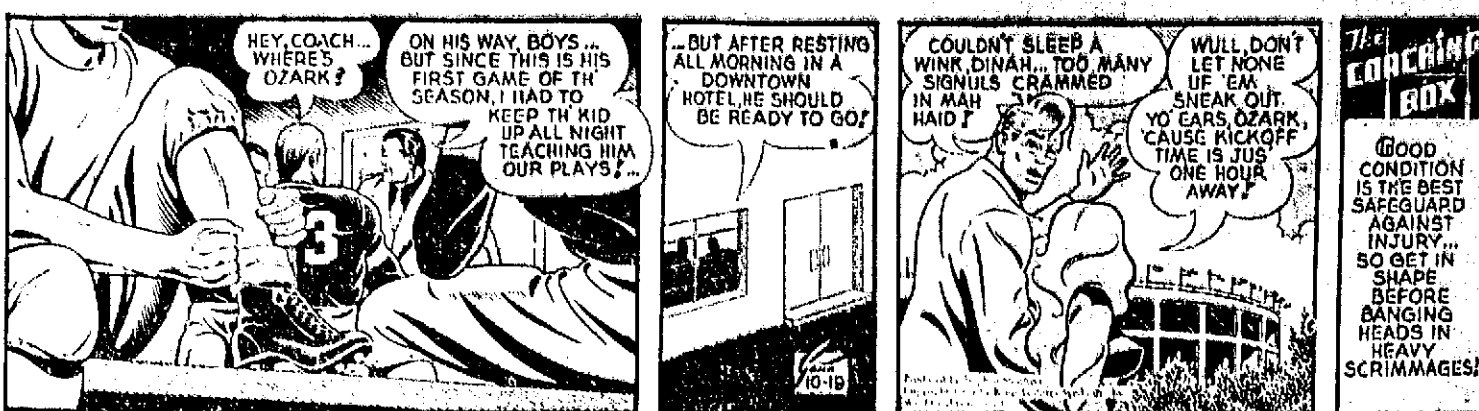

"We'll call it Nancy Kelly Incorporated."
"I challenge you—is it a go?"
Three months later Nancy Kelly, alone at midnight, stood in her shop, the shop she had dreamed of. Her shop. Her venture. She had plunged into a new life. She walked around the room, touched the beautiful things, the chairs, the draperies, wandered in and out of the miniature rooms, in a row down one side of the shop, that were to serve for the fitting and accommodation of customers. She took a gown from its rack, held it against her. She sat down for a moment before a shining new typewriter in the little office, and toyed with it. (To Be Continued)

BLONDIE

OZARK IKE

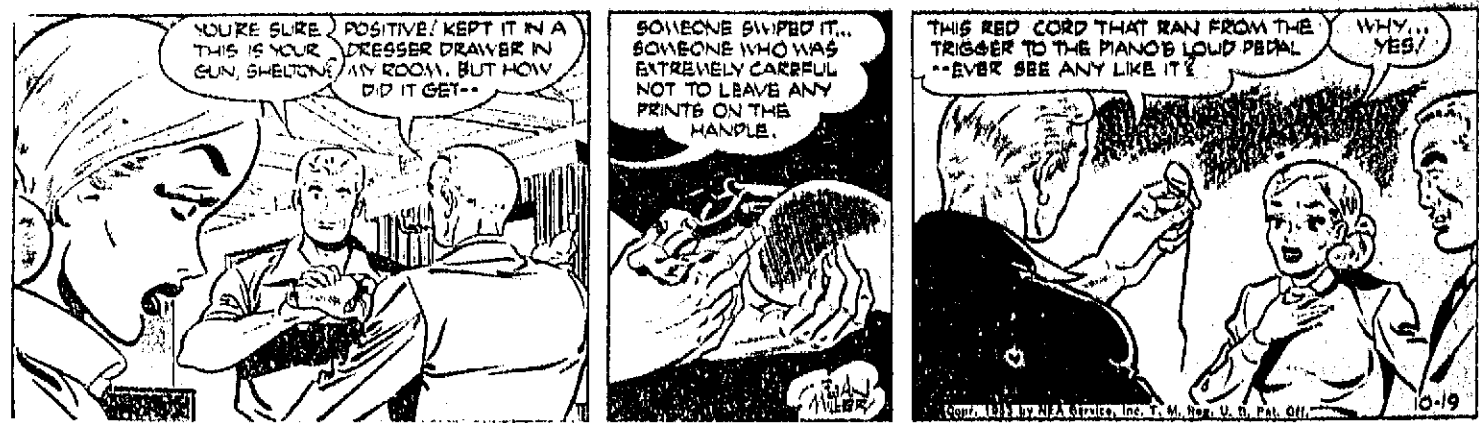

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. Williams

VIC FLINT

Masculine Matters

Answer to Previous Puzzle

ACROSS

- Masculine
- Masculine head covers
- Masculine parent
- Boy's toy
- Sheltered side
- Poems
- Mohammedan name
- Triteness
- Fish eggs
- Knells
- Studio
- Let it stand
- Posed
- Goddess of plenty
- Prayer ending
- Ripped
- Turn
- Unclosed
- Football team
- Cylindrical
- Song for one
- Act
- Oriental coin
- Cover
- Hebrew
- Investigates
- Big
- Boy's best friend
- Things given out
- Constellation
- Golf mounds
- Glance over
- Neither
- Certain
- Italian city

DOWN

- Throw
- Singing voice
- Ring
- Vends
- Male child
- Fancy
- Repose
- Worms
- Masculine singers
- Century plant
- Row
- Landed property
- Tardier
- Improve
- Mineral rocks
- Horseback game
- Shaped like small stars
- Prominent
- Network
- Paradise
- Stay away from
- Foot levers
- Simpler
- What
- Overweight males are given
- Elevate
- Bridge
- Polynesian plant
- Australian ostrich
- Fabulous
- Insect birds
- Hireling
- Compass point

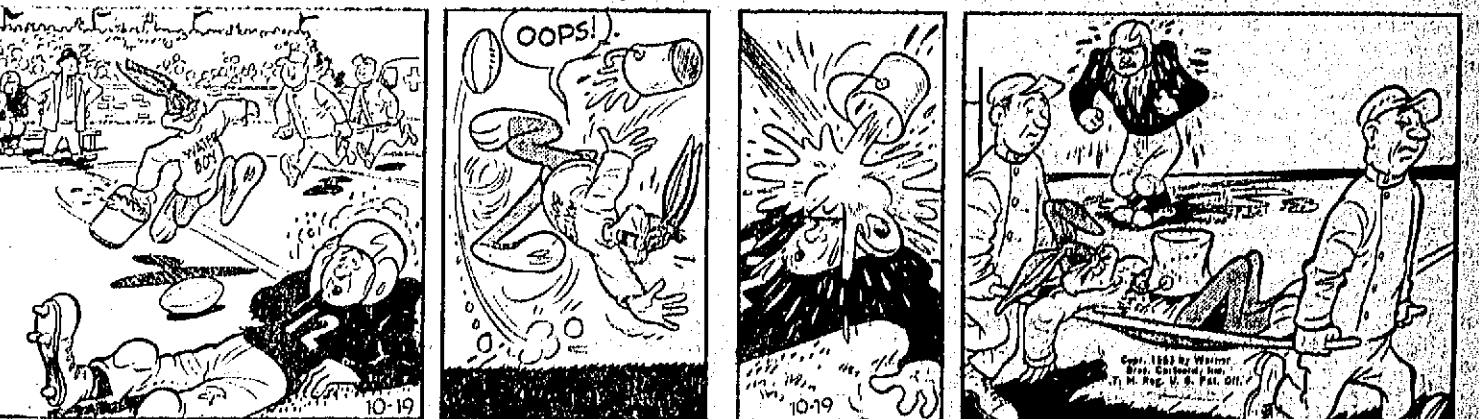

WASH TUBBS

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

BUGS BUNNY

ALLEY OOP

CHRIS WELKIN, Planeteer

THE STORY OF MARTHA WAYNE

CARNIVAL

By Dick Turner

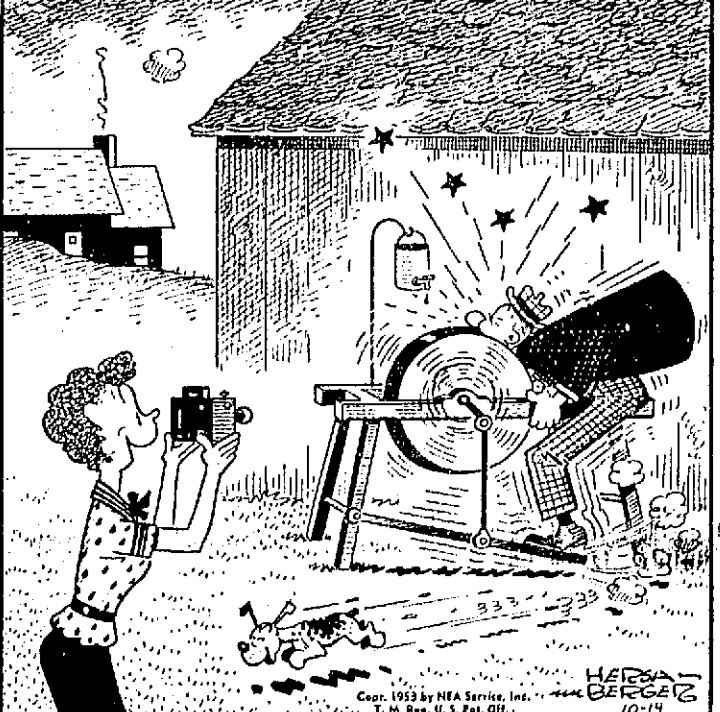

SIDE GLANCES

By Galbraith

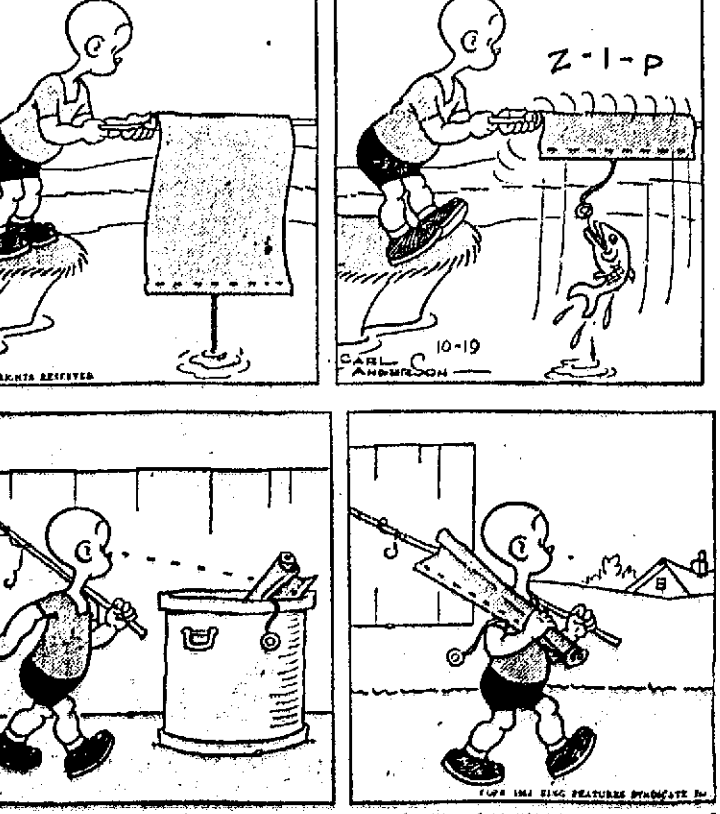

FUNNY BUSINESS

By Hershberger

HENRY

By Carl Anderson

Six Hurt in Wild Roller Coaster Ride

DALLAS (AP) — A runaway roller coaster whizzing an estimated 40 miles an hour smashed into another being loaded at the state fair last night. The impact sent hurt and terrified passengers in the air and caused a 25-cent nightmare round trip that could not be stopped.

Six persons were injured, none critically.

Paul Mahyall, 21, sitting on a bench in the loading shed, watched helplessly as the runaway coaster tore down.

"Two of my friends had just gotten on the car at the dock. I didn't want to ride, I just sat down to wait for them. I saw the other car coming and felt it must have been going 40 miles an hour."

"Two girls on the incoming car screamed. Then it hit. After that, there were a lot of screams and everybody started pulling people out of the car and stretching them on benches."

The second car was knocked about 20 feet — far enough to be hooked by automatic cables that sent it climbing relentlessly up the first step grade.

Screams altered down to crowds milling in the busy midway.

Churchill Wants Lasting World Peace

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill, at 70 and in the twilight of his historic life, is believed to have one final and great ambition as his crowning contribution to civilization.

It is to help, as architect or engineer, to establish abiding peace in the world. As a starter he wants a meeting between himself, President Eisenhower, Russia's Premier Malenkov and France's Premier Laniel.

Usually at such a top level conference there is an agenda—a program of what shall be discussed, just that and nothing else. There is something to be said for this, and something against it.

By knowing exactly beforehand what topics they are to talk about, the heads of government can go well prepared to such a conference. They can go with plenty of research, briefing and advice from their experts.

An agenda also makes for a sharper end to a conference than the open taking part in it had no agenda and were free to wander about, discussing problems that come to the mind.

So, while a conference with an agenda might be able to concentrate on a few items, it would sacrifice the chance, if any, for a more relaxed meeting which could digress and perhaps settle, difficult questions somebody just happened to bring up.

The American government takes a different view. Before any top level Big Four meeting, it wants the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, Russia and France to meet—with an agenda.

Last Wednesday Secretary of State Dulles flew to London to confer with Britain's Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and France's Foreign Minister Georges Bidault. They had a number of problems to talk about.

Russia, Korea, and suggesting to Russia some way of getting together with her to talk about a peace settlement on Germany and Austria, particularly Germany.

The three ministers seemed to have a choice: suggest that they meet with Russia's Foreign Minister Molotov or accept Churchill's idea and suggest a meeting between him, Eisenhower, Malenkov and Laniel.

On the day Dulles flew to London, the Swedish Academy was giving Churchill the Nobel prize for his writings and his oratory. His oratory was "astounding," the academy said.

That night, after both the announcement and the American secretary of state had arrived, Churchill had a chance to try out his oratory, at least in conversational form.

He had Dulles, Eden and Bidault in to dinner. And he had them back the next day for lunch before their three-day meeting began.

Yesterday, just before he took a plane back home, Dulles said the British prime minister had been in "fine form."

But apparently Dulles was unmoved by Churchill's call for a top-level parley. For at the end of their meeting, instead of proposing a Churchill-Eisenhower-Malenkov-Laniel meeting, it would have been a surprise if they had—the three foreign ministers proposed:

That they—Dulles, Eden, Bidault—meet with Molotov to discuss unification of Germany, an independence treaty for Austria and some way of bringing peace to the world.

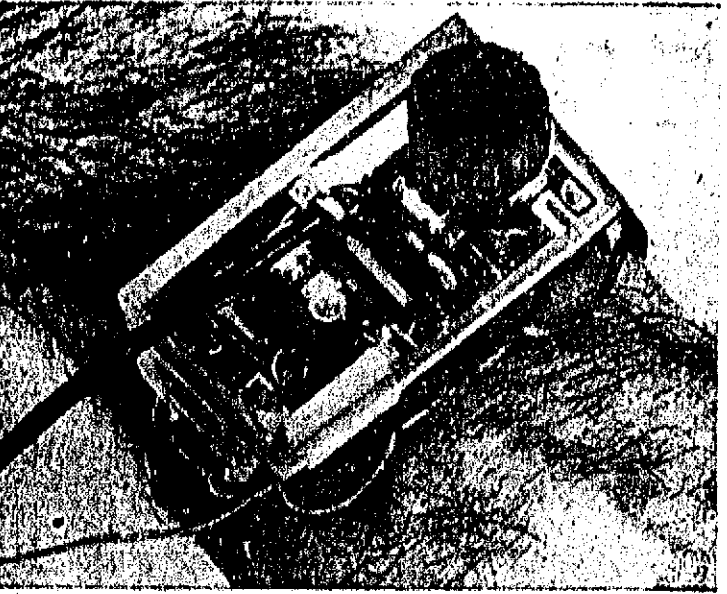

The announcement had hardly been made before people in the State Department here were expressing doubt that Russia would accept. For one thing, they pointed to Russia's uncertainty about Germany.

The vote in East Germany to join the West and the overwhelming re-election in September of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, a close ally of the West, were enough to make Russia doubt whether Germany would ever be on the side.

History may show whether Churchill was right or wrong.

HOMEWARD BOUND, ALAS!—Hardly appearing overjoyed at the prospect, these weeping, waiting, bounding Chinese prisoners of war in a tent at Panmunjom, Korea, await their return to the Chinese Communist authorities. They had changed their minds and decided to go back to the Reds instead of remaining in the free world.

TINY TUNER—Wrist space is usually reserved for a watch, but the Army Signal Corps thinks it's a good place to wear a radio. This is a close-up of the Lilliputian receiver which has transistor-type units replacing the standard vacuum tubes. The knob on the outside of the case is used for tuning in signals. While the unit is unable to transmit, it can pick up signals in a 40-mile radius.

PRESCOTT NEWS

Monday, October 19

The Woman's Association of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. Carl Daryl Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

Tuesday, October 20

The monthly meeting of the Prescott Garden club will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the home of Mrs. Watson Whit-Jr.

Wednesday, October 21

The West Side Home Demonstration club will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Harry Keeley. Mrs. W. B. Sage will be associate hostess. All members are urged to attend as there will be an election of officers.

Thursday, October 22

The Southern Pine Garden club will meet on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 in the home of Mrs. Frank Turberville.

Friday, October 23

Mrs. Guss McCaskill Hostess to Wednesday Bridge Club. Members of the Wednesday Bridge club were entertained by Mrs. Guss McCaskill at her home on East Elm street.

A lovely arrangement of lavender and white mums interspersed with peach gladioli and fern centered the dining table. The high score was won by Mrs. Dallis Atkins and the cup prize by Mrs. Allen Gee, Sr.

Mrs. Russell Moberg was a guest. Other members present included Mrs. H. H. McKenzie, Mrs. Dudley Gordon, Mrs. Saxon Regan, Mrs. Clarke White and Mrs. Harold Lewis.

A dainty dessert course was served.

Prescott Demonstration Club has closer meeting. The October meeting of the Prescott home demonstration club was held in the home of Mrs. C. D. Ward with nine members and a visitor present.

Roses in crystal containers were used for decorations. The president, Mrs. Jaes Roe, called the meeting to order and led in prayer. The minutes of the September meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Allen Erskine, Jr.

Miss Pauline Faucette, of Hot Springs, representative of the Arkansas Power and Light Co. spoke in "Proper Lighting for the Home."

An interesting demonstration on copper tooling and how to make copper planters was given by Mrs. Madge Burgess.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Allen Erskine, Jr.

skine, Jr.

The hostess served a delectable dessert course.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Martin and children, who have been the guests of his mother, Mrs. Ida Martin and other relatives, left Wednesday for Washington, D. C. where they will make their home.

So, O. Logan attended Ouchita Presbytery in Eudora on Wednesday as a delegate from the Presbyterian church. He was accompanied by Mrs. Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pederson and David Allen have returned to their home in North Cordova, Texas after a visit with her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Allen Gee, Sr.

Mrs. C. C. Thomas was a Wednesday visitor in Texarkana.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Porter have been the recent guests of relatives in Panagoch.

Judge R. P. C. Conkling of Jefferson City, Mo., has joined Mrs. Conkling for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Tompkins.

Body Butler, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Butler, who is a student at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, has been elected president of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity pledge class and Bobby Grayson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Remmel Grayson, has been elected vice president. Both are Juniors.

Rev. Wesley A. Lindsay, pastor of the First Baptist church, is conducting a revival meeting at the First Southern Baptist church in Wilmington, Ill., where his brother, Rev. Lee Lindsay is pastor.

Mrs. Watson Ward is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Jim Menes and family in Magnolia.

Mrs. C. A. Haynes has recently returned from Houston, Texas where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rome and family and Midland, Texas, where she visited her son, Charles Haynes and family.

Allen Gee and Coy Dewoody were Wednesday business visitors in Hot Springs.

WINS STEER WRESTLING

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Bailey of Rock Springs, Ark., won the steer wrestling contest in the Madison Square Garden Rodeo here yesterday.

Bailey's time was 31.4 seconds.

In the days of sailing ships, some superstitious sailors feared to go to sea in a ship which did not have a figurehead.

Ike, President of Mexico to Dedicate Dam

FALCON DAM, Tex. (AP) — President Eisenhower joined the President of Mexico today in dedicating a vast new and unique international dam.

And along both sides of the United States-Mexican border, the citizenry turned out in colorful numbers to cheer the visiting chief executive.

The occasion was the formal opening of a project new in international affairs — Falcon Dam, the first of three to be built jointly by the United States and Mexico to make power, stop floods and irrigate hundreds of thousands of acres.

In southwest Texas and in old Mexico the mood was one of fiesta for this long-awaited day as Eisenhower and Mexican President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines came here for the long-awaited event.

Supports on Oats, Barley, Rye Unlikely

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Benson was reported in congressional circles today to have decided to continue price supports on oats, barley and rye—a move which would counter one phase of reputed farm dissatisfaction.

Such a decision by Benson, expected to be announced soon, would be aimed at reassuring farmers as the winter grain planting season starts against the possibility of disastrous price drops later.

It might also have the effect of lessening criticism of the secretary, who has been reluctant to approve the present high level price

BEANS—They may not look like beans, but that's what they are. Carl Cowl, of Minneapolis, Minn., grows the huge vegetables in his own garden. He got the seeds from an army officer stationed in New Guinea, and of the four seeds planted, three grew into beanstalks. The largest specimen he holds weighs about five and one half pounds and is 39 inches long. They are said to taste like a cross between bean and eggplant.

support program. That criticism built up new steam over the week-end.

Announcement of continued supports for prices of minor grains might be interpreted in the farm belt as indicating that Benson is in line with President Eisenhower's statement that the principle of price supports must be retained in the new farm program to be sent to Congress early next year.

20 Violent Deaths in Arkansas

By The Associated Press

Arkansas recorded one of its most deadly seven-day periods of 1953 last week when 20 persons died violently.

Fifteen of the deaths were recorded over the weekend, ending at midnight Sunday.

Fourteen fatalities were attributed to traffic accidents. Four other persons died as the result of accidental shootings or homicides; another person was electrocuted accidentally, and the other victim died in a farm mishap.

The 15 weekend deaths included: The Rev. W. F. Cooley, 42, of Fayetteville. He was injured fatally in a two-car collision Thursday afternoon near Clarksville in which six other persons also were hurt. He died at a Clarksville Hospital Saturday. The Methodist minister, a native of Blytheville, had been superintendent of the Fayetteville Methodist District since 1950. He was enroute to a Methodist meeting at Conway when the accident occurred.

James Caple, 24, of Pine Bluff. He was injured fatally Saturday in a traffic accident at the entrance to the Pine Bluff Arsenal.

Herbert Murphy Jr., of DeWitt. Sheriff Harold Woodson said Murphy, a member of an Arkansas County highway crew, was helping to clear right-of-way near DeWitt when a chain he was pulling touched a high tension wire.

Leland S. Russell, 32, of Monticello. Ill. Coroner Otis Dillinger said Russell probably went to sleep at the wheel of his car causing it to hit a bridge abutment on Highway 67 about nine miles south of Newport. Russell was killed instantly.

Marlin Clinton Carey, 4, son of the Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Carey of near El Dorado. The youngster died Sunday of injuries suffered Friday when he was struck by an

Wayne Divorce Case to Start

By JAMES BACON

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Movie man John Wayne, who admits he is scared of all women, battles his Mexican wife today in what promises to be one of the longest and stormiest divorce trials in movieland history.

"Big Duke," the screen's top box office star, wants a divorce from the former Esperanza Bauer and also a sizeable slash from what he terms "fantastic" separate maintenance demands of the 31-year-old Latin actress. Both sides charge extreme cruelty.

The Wayne forces are geared for a trial lasting until Christmas. However, producer Bob Fellows, Wayne's partner in movie-making, has a "hunch" that the case will be settled on the courthouse steps.

Wayne said that he offered his estranged wife "more money than she will ever get from any court" but that she turned all offers down cold.

When Canary birds were first exported from the Canary Islands for pets during the 16th Century, Spain tried and failed to maintain a monopoly of the trade by exporting only males.

danella. Yell County Sheriff Earl Ladd said Tucker was shot to death about dawn Sunday in an argument following an all night poker game. He said Charlie Thompson, a 56-year-old day laborer on the McClure plantation, admitted shooting Tucker with a pistol as they were walking from one house to another.

Ladd said Thompson was being held at Danville and probably would receive a hearing Tuesday.

DISCOVERED—Pattee Chapman shows how she used to tote a tray when she was working as a waitress in Wil Wright's ice cream parlor in Beverly Hills, Calif. Ed ("Archie") Gardner, proprietor of the "Duffy's Tavern" TV show, dropped in and Pattee gave out with the Miss Duffy chatter. Now she's signed to a five-year contract to play the likeable lame-brain in the show.

automobile in front of his home on Highway 32. Sheriff R. E. Buck said Mrs. Carey told him the boy broke loose from her and tumbled into the path of the car.

Floyd Tucker, 55, of near Dan-

ville, Yell County Sheriff Earl Ladd said Tucker was shot to death about dawn Sunday in an argument following an all night poker game. He said Charlie Thompson, a 56-year-old day laborer on the McClure plantation, admitted shooting Tucker with a pistol as they were walking from one house to another.

Ladd said Thompson was being held at Danville and probably would receive a hearing Tuesday.

DISCOVERED—Pattee Chapman shows how she used to tote a tray when she was working as a waitress in Wil Wright's ice cream parlor in Beverly Hills, Calif. Ed ("Archie") Gardner, proprietor of the "Duffy's Tavern" TV show, dropped in and Pattee gave out with the Miss Duffy chatter. Now she's signed to a five-year contract to play the likeable lame-brain in the show.

automobile in front of his home on Highway 32. Sheriff R. E. Buck said Mrs. Carey told him the boy broke loose from her and tumbled into the path of the car.

Floyd Tucker, 55, of near Dan-

ville, Yell County Sheriff Earl Ladd said Tucker was shot to death about dawn Sunday in an argument following an all night poker game. He said Charlie Thompson, a 56-year-old day laborer on the McClure plantation, admitted shooting Tucker with a pistol as they were walking from one house to another.

Ladd said Thompson was being held at Danville and probably would receive a hearing Tuesday.

DISCOVERED—Pattee Chapman shows how she used to tote a tray when she was working as a waitress in Wil Wright's ice cream parlor in Beverly Hills, Calif. Ed ("Archie") Gardner, proprietor of the "Duffy's Tavern" TV show, dropped in and Pattee gave out with the Miss Duffy chatter. Now she's signed to a five-year contract to play the likeable lame-brain in the show.

automobile in front of his home on Highway 32. Sheriff R. E. Buck said Mrs. Carey told him the boy broke loose from her and tumbled into the path of the car.

Floyd Tucker, 55, of near Dan-

ville, Yell County Sheriff Earl Ladd said Tucker was shot to death about dawn Sunday in an argument following an all night poker game. He said Charlie Thompson, a 56-year-old day laborer on the McClure plantation, admitted shooting Tucker with a pistol as they were walking from one house to another.

Ladd said Thompson was being held at Danville and probably would receive a hearing Tuesday.

DISCOVERED—Pattee Chapman shows how she used to tote a tray when she was working as a waitress in Wil Wright's ice cream parlor in Beverly Hills, Calif. Ed ("Archie") Gardner, proprietor of the "Duffy's Tavern" TV show, dropped in and Pattee gave out with the Miss Duffy chatter. Now she's signed to a five-year contract to play the likeable lame-brain in the show.

automobile in front of his home on Highway 32. Sheriff R. E. Buck said Mrs. Carey told him the boy broke loose from her and tumbled into the path of the car.

Floyd Tucker, 55, of near Dan-

ville, Yell County Sheriff Earl Ladd said Tucker was shot to death about dawn Sunday in an argument following an all night poker game. He said Charlie Thompson, a 56-year-old day laborer on the McClure plantation, admitted shooting Tucker with a pistol as they were walking from one house to another.

Ladd said Thompson was being held at Danville and probably would receive a hearing Tuesday.

DISCOVERED—Pattee Chapman shows how she used to tote a tray when she was working as a waitress in Wil Wright's ice cream parlor in Beverly Hills, Calif. Ed ("Archie") Gardner, proprietor of the "Duffy's Tavern" TV show, dropped in and Pattee gave out with the Miss Duffy chatter. Now she's signed to a five-year contract to play the likeable lame-brain in the show.

automobile in front of his home on Highway 32. Sheriff R. E. Buck said Mrs. Carey told him the boy broke loose from her and tumbled into the path of the car.

Floyd Tucker, 55, of near Dan-

ville, Yell County Sheriff Earl Ladd said Tucker was shot to death about dawn Sunday in an argument following an all night poker game. He said Charlie Thompson, a 56-year-old day laborer on the McClure plantation, admitted shooting Tucker with a pistol as they were walking from one house to another.

Ladd said Thompson was being held at Danville and probably would receive a hearing Tuesday.

DISCOVERED—Pattee Chapman shows how she used to tote a tray when she was working as a waitress in Wil Wright's ice cream parlor in Beverly Hills, Calif. Ed ("Archie") Gardner, proprietor of the "Duffy's Tavern" TV show, dropped in and Pattee gave out with the Miss Duffy chatter. Now she's signed to a five-year contract to play the likeable lame-brain in the show.

automobile in front of his home on Highway 32. Sheriff R. E. Buck said Mrs. Carey told him the boy broke loose from her and tumbled into the path of the car.

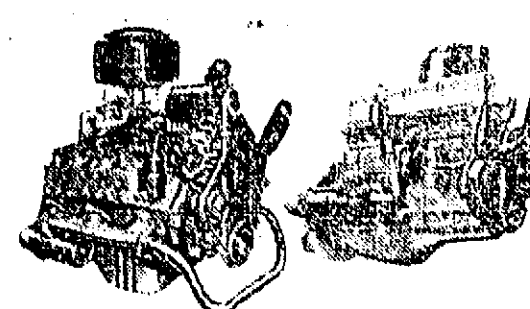

Floyd Tucker, 55, of near Dan-

You'll get more than you expect

In feature after feature, Ford matches the finest . . .

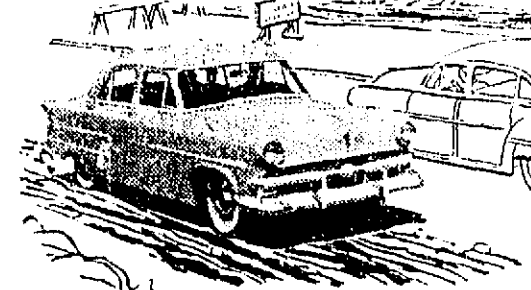

with fine car ride . . . fine-car build . . . and fine-car V-8 GO!

Check these fine car features that are yours when you buy a Ford, the one fine car in the low-price field. You get glass area galore . . . the most in Ford's field. You get more usable inside space than in any other low-priced car. Seats are foam-rubber-cushioned both front and rear. You get such Ford advances as convenient Center-Fill Fueling and suspended clutch and brake pedals. But here are the big reasons why Ford is worth more when you buy it and when you sell it, too!

V-8 or Six power

Only Ford in its field offers you a fine-car high-compression V-8 engine . . . the result of Ford's experience building more V-8's than all other makers combined. And Ford's high-compression, low-friction Six is the most modern Six in the industry. Both engines have Ford's exclusive Automatic Power Pilot which squeezes the last drop of power out of every drop of gasoline.

Up to 80% less road shock

Ford has reduced front end road shock (the kind you notice most) up to 80%. And by a perfect teaming-up of rear springs, diagonally-mounted rear shock absorbers and tailored-to-weight front springs, Ford has proved that a car can ride smooth as silk without gas-eating extra weight.

Master-Guide power steering

Ford Master-Guide is the last word in power steering. It does up to 75% of the steering work for you when you need it . . . yet it leaves you with a natural feel of steering on the straight-away. And it helps you control the car on rough, rutted roads. Available on all V-8 models.

Built like the finest

Ford's hull-tight body is sealed against water, dust and draft. Body panels are made of steel of the same quality and thickness as that used in the costliest cars. Ford's rugged box-section frame has five strong cross members including a special K-bar member which adds extra twist resistance . . . gives longer car life.

Fordomatic Drive

It's the finest, most versatile of all automatic drives . . . combines the smoothness of a fluid torque converter and the "Go" of automatic mechanical gears. Ford also offers you Overdrive and Conventional drive.

in the "Worth More" FORD

COME IN . . . SEE . . . VALUE CHECK . . . TEST DRIVE IT TODAY!

HOPE AUTO CO.

YOUR FORD DEALER FOR OVER 30 YEARS
HOPE, ARK.

220 W. Second St.

Phone 7-2341

If you're interested in used cars, be sure to see our selections!